Midnight Confessions Joy Olree, 2017-10-03 In Midnight Confessions poet Joy Olree a self described autistic poet with MS presents a collection of user friendly verse reflecting on her experiences with the world and her readings and studies of the Bible She offers her opinions on a wide range of topics and invites disagreement and discussion Midnight Confessions In the twinkling of an eye they came the memory snatchers First it was the short term memories then the medium ones As time went by more memories seem to leave but she never forgot her God and she never did not pray I put my hand on her bed as she breathed her last breath I prayed Thank you Lord for making it possible for me to be there As I sit here in the lighted room the dark outside I miss my stepmom Tomorrow is Christmas a time of celebration and I think to myself Do I have anything to celebrate Most of my family has died I still have the children and the grandchildren I guess I am blessed and is that not the way of life Us older folks die and the young take our place unless there is some unforeseen unexpected tragedy But I have much to be thankful for this Christmas See because of my decision to take care of my stepmom at the nursing home I now have a new set of friends A nursing home full of friends Thank you stepmom and God for making this possible Merry Christmas and a happy New Year humanity Rage to Redemption Joseph W. Hahne, 2011-06-20 Of the 17 years Joe spent living an out of control life on the edge five of those years resulted in time behind bars in various county jails and prisons in three different states It was during these times when he found himself locked up that Joe wrote hundreds of poems as a release from the many emotions he experienced while incarcerated The poems shared in Rage to Redemption were compiled and published in the order in which they were originally written If you choose to read the poems in order from front to back you will actually see a life transforming through the words on these pages The book as a whole tells a beautiful story that starts with much despair and unfolds into a life of love faith hope and joy While Rage and Redemption has a spiritual base it also contains some graphic imagery that portrays where the author's frame of mind was during his darkest hours This book is full of pain loneliness inspiration and redemption There is something for everyone in this poetry even if you are not a traditional poetry fan They are real poems that were written by a real man who deals with real issues Take a minute to read some of this work We're sure you too will find something that touches you

New York Magazine, 1983-11-28 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Time Release Poems Robert Priest, 1997 Time Release Poems should be swallowed one or two at a time and absorbed slowly in order to facilitate release of little wisdoms in the mind They may be taken anytime and are useful in personal expressions of pith rage and even love Conceptual Engineering and Conceptual Ethics Alexis Burgess, Herman Cappelen, David Plunkett, 2020 Conceptual engineering is a newly flourishing branch of philosophy which investigates problems with our concepts and considers how they might be ameliorated truth for instance is susceptible to paradox and it is not clear what race stands for This is the first collective exploration of possibilities and problems of conceptual engineering

Live Like You Mean It Eric Delve, 2010-03-18 This energetic and engaging call to live life to the full offers you the chance to rethink what matters to you and why and to do something about it Too often we drift through life going with the flow or being tossed by currents beyond our control and failing to realise that if we would only fight for the life God meant us for life would be so much more fulfilling Eric Delve the well known evangelist and organiser of the Detling Festival here sets out a strong argument for intentional living the need to engage positively with the choices that face us and the rewards it will bring if we do so Along the way he challenges us to face up to who we really are jettisoning pretence or fantasy and to accept our humanity in its weakness and its high potential Then he urges us to understand what God's purpose is for us and to let him guide us into the full life he wants for us including standing firm through difficult times Finally he issues a challenge to us all to escape from the modern curse of individualism and accept the need and wonderful opportunity to pass on all we ve learnt in life to colleagues friends and families because they re worth it too Bonding with the Blonde Women Ellie Lofaro,2003-03 Full of bite sized stories that you will want to devour in one sitting Ellie Lofaro shares how God uses everyday experiences to teach us more about His amazing grace Letting Go Nancy A. nothing short of a miracle to catapult Lt Torolf Magnusson and his team of Navy SEALs back in time to the eleventh century Norselands First on the agenda destroy the evil villain who terrorized his family and a nation But when the sexy SEALs find they ve landed in the middle of a sanctuary filled with women well hoo yah Their plans are put on hold much to the distress of Hilda the head of the sanctuary At first resistant to Torolf s pursuits she soon succumbs to his passionate advances Suddenly the term Special Forces takes on a whole new meaning But with victory in sight for Torolf Hilda must face the fact that their love may not survive the test of time

American Made Dan DiMicco,2015-03-03 American manufacturing is on life support at least that s what most people think The exodus of jobs to China and other foreign markets is irreversible and anything that is built here requires specialized skills the average worker couldn t hope to gain Not so says Dan DiMicco chairman and former CEO of Nucor America s largest steel company He not only revived a major US manufacturing firm during a recession but helped galvanize the flagging domestic steel industry when many of his competitors were in bankruptcy or headed overseas In American Made he takes to task the politicians academics and political pundits who he contends are exacerbating fears and avoiding simple solutions for the sake of nothing more than their own careers and contrasts them with the postwar leaders who rebuilt Europe and Japan put a man on the moon and kept communism at bay We need leaders of such resolve today he argues who can tackle a broken job creation engine by restoring manufacturing to its central role in the U S economy and cease creating fictitious service businesses where jobs evaporate after a year or two as in a Ponzi scheme With his trademark bluntness DiMicco tackles the false promise of green jobs and the hidden costs of outsourcing Along the way he shares the lessons he s learned about good leadership crisis management and the true meaning of innovation and maps the road back to robust economic growth middle class prosperity and American competitiveness
