Popular Ethiopian Cinema Michael W. Thomas, 2022-09-08 This book shines much needed light on the history structures and films of the Amharic film industry in Ethiopia Focusing on the rise of the industry from 2002 until today and embedded in archival ethnographic and textual research methods this book offers a sustained and detailed appreciation of Amharic language cinema Michael Thomas considers fiker love as an organising principle in national Ethiopian culture and by extension Amharic cinema Placing fiker as central to understanding Amharic film genres also illuminates the continuous negotiations at play between romantic familial patriotic and spiritual notions of love in these films Thomas considers the production and exhibition of films in Ethiopia charting fluctuations and continuities between the past and the present Having done so he offers detailed textual readings of films identifying important junctures in the industry's development and the emergence of new genres The findings of the book detail the affective characteristics that delineate most Amharic genres and the role culturally specific concepts such as fiker play in maintaining the relevance of commercial cinemas reliant on domestic audiences Amharic-English dictionary Thomas Leiper Kane, 1990 The Quest for Press Freedom

Meseret Chekol Reta, 2013-05-16 The Quest for Press Freedom is a book about press development and freedom in Ethiopia with a focus on the state media It examines the building of a modern media institution over the last one hundred years of its existence and the restrictions against its freedoms The significance of this work lies in its originality and that it addresses these two issues across three distinct epochs the monarchy era the Marxist military regime and the current ethnic federalist regime The book examines the political and social situations in each of these periods and analyzes the effects they had on the media The book also provides examples of how journalists working for the government run media have a strong desire to exercise their constitutional right to press freedom In the final chapter Reta offers recommendations for a more viable media system in Ethiopia Agrarian Reform in Ethiopia Dessalegn Rahmato, 1984 Field study of post revolutionary agrarian reform and social change in rural area Ethiopia looks at the agrarian structure and social classes prior to 1975 comments on land reform legislation adopted up to 1982 land nationalization and land allotment impact on use of agricultural technology agricultural price agricultural taxation and emerging trends in agricultural development discusses role structure and leadership of farmers associations etc Bibliography and statistical tables Youth on the Move Asnake Kefale, Fana Gebresenbet, 2021-12-01 At a time when policies are increasingly against it international migration has become the subject of great public and academic attention This book departs from the dominant approach of studying international migration at macro level and from the perspective of destination countries The contributors here seek to do more than scratch the surface of the migration process by foregrounding the voices and views of Ethiopian youth potential migrants and returnees and of their sending communities The volume focuses on the perspective and agency of these young people both potential migrants and returnees to better understand migration decision making experiences and outcomes It brings together rarely documented cases of young men and women from several communities across Ethiopia migrating to the Gulf and South Africa Explaining the agency of local actors prospective migrants brokers and sending families Youth on the Move illuminates the pervasive persistent failure of state attempts to regulate migration Moreover it examines the financing of migration and the sharing of remittances within a culturally situated moral economy While accounts centered on economics and political violence are important the contributors demonstrate compellingly that these factors alone cannot provide a full understanding of migration s complexity nor of its social realities
