The Animal Assignment

A chorus of groans erupted from Mr. Trevino's class. It was late Friday afternoon and his students were looking forward to the long weekend. No one wanted homework!

"Hold on," Mr. Trevino said. He raised his hands in front of him to silence the rush of complaints from his students. "I promise to make this one fun. Your assignment will be to write about an animal you want to be."

"Can it be any animal?" Jayden asked.

"You can pick any animal you like, but you need to do some research. I want you to think about this," Mr. Trevino said. "Part of your assignment will be to explain the reasons for your choice."

Students were still comparing animals when the school bell rang. Landon thought he wanted to be a bear. Kiera said she wanted to be a unicorn, and everyone laughed.

"You have to pick a real animal," Landon said, and rolled his eyes.

Jayden thought about picking a fox. He thought foxes looked cool. He also liked the way they pounced on their prey in nature films.

Erling, John Clegg, Casmir M. Rubagumya, Colin Reilly,2021-07-01 This edited collection provides unprecedented insight into the emerging field of multilingual education in Sub Saharan Africa SSA Multilingual education is claimed to have many benefits amongst which are that it can improve both content and language learning especially for learners who may have low ability in the medium of instruction and are consequently struggling to learn The book represents a range of Sub Saharan school contexts and describes how multilingual strategies have been developed and implemented within them to support the learning of content and language It looks at multilingual learning from several points of view including translanguaging or the use of multiple languages and especially African languages for learning and language supportive pedagogy or the implementation of a distinct pedagogy to support learners working through the medium of a second language The book puts forward strategies for creating materials classroom environments and teacher education programmes which support the use of all of a student s languages to improve language and content learning The contexts which the book describes are challenging including low school resourcing poverty and low literacy in the home and school policy which militates against the use of African languages in school The volume also draws on multilingual education approaches which have been successfully carried out in higher resource countries and lend themselves to being adapted for use in SSA It shows how multilingual learning can bring about transformation in education and provides inspiration for how these strategies might spread and be further developed to improve learning in schools in SSA and beyond Chapter 3 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com>
