Benbow, 2010-12-29 Sorting Letters Sorting Lives offers an examination of a workplace that for many years has employed an extraordinarily diverse workforce the United States Postal Service In the post civil rights era the Postal Service took a leading role in managing a diverse workforce seeking to acknowledge and honor the different groups and cultures represented among its workforce The USPS has constantly been looking for ways to motivate its employees to create a sense of fairness and belonging and to minimize interpersonal and inter group conflicts Linda Benbow examines the organizational culture and levels of diversity found in an urban United States Postal Service mail processing facility She shows how employee perceptions of social differences and their interactions with coworkers contribute to their identity and work life within the organization Painting detailed portraits of race social class and gender in a mail processing facility Benbow looks at ways employees of diverse backgrounds relate to one another identifying the issues and occasions that provoke conflict the ways that participants view one another and the forces and strategies that mitigate and conciliate conflicts This richly detailed account of a historically diverse urban post office provides a fascinating look at the dynamics of race and gender in the workplace The Reality of My Life Mr. Mark Benoit, 2012-02-24 The reason why I wrote The Reality Of My Life is to explain to the world what I went through as a child and how impossible it seemed during my growth and development for me to achieve my success educationally I often wondered why I should go through all these pains as a child and why was I so despised by my mother who should be loving protecting and guiding me to the best of her ability There were times that I felt all hope was going away from me but through the power of the Almighty God I got the aspiration to change the negative aspect of my life into positivity While going through the pressures of life I had no one to turn to At nine years my older brother became my mentor and the principles he taught me never left me although it was for only one year Today I can say to the world that I have a voice and I hope anyone will be encouraged by my ability to fight and win

Bureaucratic Thought of the Day Shane Henry Derby, 2010-02-17 The bureaucratic thought of the day began just before Thanksgiving 2008 I attended early morning meetings in a San Diego shipyard while my ship was undergoing maintenance and repairs A fellow officer and I would exchange friendly morning jokes and gestures in preparation to endure the unknown in which anyone stationed onboard a U S Navy Warship would understand Anyone familiar with bureaucracy and irrational decisions that can result from the big wheel of government or any large company for that matter can relate to the perspective of each daily quote The structure of each daily quote is intended to be the thoughts of a supervisor or subordinate The quote is designed to assign words to a supervisor or executive's demeanor From the subordinate perspective the quote may be what he or she wish could be said for what comes to mind when poor leadership or example is observed The quote may be designed to put words in the boss mouth as well all in good humor Anyone on the receiving end of orders and responsible for carrying them out will be able to relate to this type of humor Although you may find some of the quotes poignant and cynical the goal is only to capture the humor or redundancy in our American behavior when interacting in the work place or participating in a larger group hierarchy The bureaucracy onboard a U S Navy Warship is probably small in comparison to the larger Navy Department of Defense or Civilian Corporation From my fellow officers and me we hope you enjoy our subtle humor and pretentious jokes we communicate through the Bureaucratic Thought of the Day I hope it makes you smile before you begin your day at the office or worksite don't worry there are many serious thoughts of the day embedded as well to include weekend inspirational thoughts so don't forget to read the weekends thought before you leave the office or worksite on Friday
