

The Ant and the Dove

One hot day, an ant was searching for some water. After walking around for some time, she came to a spring. To reach the spring, she had to climb up a blade of grass. While making her way up, she slipped and fell into the water.

She could have drowned if a dove up a nearby tree had not seen her. Seeing that the ant was in trouble, the dove quickly plucked off a leaf and dropped it into the water near the struggling ant. The ant moved towards the leaf and climbed up there. Soon it carried her safely to dry ground. Just at that time, a hunter nearby was throwing out his net towards the dove, hoping to trap it.

Guessing what he was about to do, the ant quickly bit him on the heel. Feeling the pain, the hunter dropped his net. The dove was quick to fly away to safety.

One good turn deserves another.

folklore fantasy detective intrigue and adventure with phantasmagoric surrealism His stories create a rich complex tapestry where reality intertwines with the otherworldly enveloping the reader in an atmosphere of wonder and mystery Gabor's intricate narrative design challenges and captivates ensuring each story remains etched in your memory long after the last page is turned This collection is not just a reading experience it's a journey through a realm of intense emotions and existential contemplations The stories resonate with a sense of anxiety and unease compelling you to live through them rather than merely read them Finishing this book is a transformative experience leaving you feeling changed refreshed and deeply moved Written over more than two decades this collection showcases Gabor's evolution as a writer and his unique ability to capture the complexities of the human condition Whether you're a lover of surreal narratives deep existential themes or simply looking for a book that challenges the norms A Book of Exotic Dreams and Real Events is an essential addition to your library Dive into this extraordinary collection and let Vasyl Gabor's vivid storytelling awaken your imagination and stir your soul

A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost-conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L. Harner's Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse's volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal The Collected Short Stories of George Moore Vol 4 Ann Heilmann, Mark Llewellyn, 2024-08-01 George Moore 1852-1933 was one of the most influential and versatile writers and journalists of the turn of the century This five-volume reset critical edition addresses scholarly interest in Moore making available his generally neglected short story collections

Narrative Faith David Stromberg, 2017-10-18 Narrative Faith engages with the dynamics of doubt and faith to consider how literary works with complex structures explore different moral visions The study describes a literary petite histoire that problematizes faith in two ways both in the themes presented in the story and the strategies used to tell that story leading readers to doubt the narrators and their narratives Starting with Dostoevsky's Demons 1872 a literary work that has captivated and confounded critics and readers for well over a century the study examines Albert Camus's The Plague 1947 and Isaac Bashevis Singer's The Penitent 1973 83 works by twentieth-century authors who similarly intensify questions of faith through narrators that generate doubt The two postwar novelists share parallel preoccupations with Dostoevsky's art and similar personal philosophies while their works constitute two literary responses to the cataclysm of the Second World War extending questions of faith into the current era The book's last section looks beyond narrative inquiry to consider themes of confession and revision that appear in all three novels and open onto horizons beyond faith and doubt to hope
