Elle écrivait des poèmes et lisait des romans tout le temps. À l'université, elle a décidé d'étudier le français et un jour, elle a donné un cours pour la première fois. Les élèves ont adoré à la fin du cours ! Ce moment-là, elle ne l'oubliera jamais.

Context Stacey Katz, Bourns, Stacey L. Katz, Carl Stewart Blyth, 2007-01-01. Something needs to be done about grammar. Katz and Blyth have written this book with the hope of changing the way French instructors teach and conceive of grammar. Intended to help teachers and teacher trainers develop an understanding of French discourse that is grounded in recent theoretical and sociolinguistic research, this book is devoted to informing teachers in training as well as experienced teachers about cutting edge methods for teaching grammar. It also describes the grammatical features of the French language in its social context. At the same time it provides suggestions for applying such abstract knowledge in practical pedagogical ways, for example how to structure grammatical explanations, devise classroom activities and take advantage of resources that give students greater exposure to French as it is truly used in various discourse environments. Dynamic Assessment Matthew

E. Poehner, 2008-03-06. Dynamic Assessment DA reconceptualizes classroom interactions by arguing that teaching and assessment should not be distinct undertakings. This book offers a much needed coherent framework for co-constructing a ZPD with learners in order to simultaneously reveal the full range of their abilities and promote development. DA has a long history in education but it is new to the L2 field. This book provides the first book length treatment of DA in the language classroom. Comparative Stylistics of French and English Jean-Paul Vinay, Jean Darbelnet, 1995-12-01. The Stylistique comparée du français et de l'anglais has become a standard text in the French speaking world for the study of comparative stylistics and the training of translators. This updated first English edition makes Vinay Darbelnet's classic methodology of translation available to a wider readership. The translation oriented contrastive grammatical and stylistic analyses of the two languages are extensively exemplified by expressions, phrases and texts. Combining description with methodological guidelines for translation, this volume serves both as a course book and through its detailed index and glossary as a reference manual for specific translation problems. Foreign Language Units for All Proficiency Levels Carl Falsgraf, 2007. See how technology can help. Narrative Development in a Multilingual Context Ludo Verhoeven, Sven Strömquist, 2001-12-31. In this volume the results of a number of empirical studies of the development of narrative construction within a multilingual context are presented and discussed. It is explored what operating principles underlie the process of narrative production in L1 and L2. Developmental relations between form and function will be studied across a broad range of functional categories.

such as temporality perspective connectivity and narrative coherence Moreover a variety of language contact situations is considered with broad variation in the typological distances between the languages in order to enable cross linguistic comparison The analysis of learner data in various cross linguistic settings may thus offer new information on the role of the structural properties of unrelated languages on the process of narrative acquisition In the present volume an attempt is also made to find out how transfer from one language to the other is facilitated Finally the effects of input on narrative construction in children s first and second language are examined in several studies

Relative Tense and Aspectual Values in Tibetan Languages Bettina Zeisler,2011-06-24 This study presents a comparative approach to a universal theory of TENSE ASPECT and MOOD combining the methods of comparative and historical linguistics fieldwork text linguistics and philology The parts of the book discuss and describe i the concepts of TENSE ASPECT and MOOD ii the Tibetan system of RELATIVE TENSE and aspectual values with main sections on Old and Classical Tibetan Lhasa Tibetan and East Tibetan Amdo and Kham and iii West Tibetan Ladakhi Purik Balti Part iv presents the comparative view Discussing the similarities and differences of temporal and aspectual concepts the study rejects the general claim that ASPECT is a linguistic universal A new linguistic concept FRAMING is introduced in order to account for the aspect like conceptualisations found in e g English The concept of RELATIVE TENSE or taxis may likewise not be universal Among the Tibetan varieties West Tibetan is unique in having fully grammaticalized the concept of ABSOLUTE TENSE West Tibetan is compared diachronically with Old and Classical Tibetan documented since the mid 8th century and synchronically with several contemporary Tibetan varieties

The grammaticalized forms of each variety are described on the basis of their employment in discourse The underlying general function of the Tibetan verbal system is thus shown to be that of RELATIVE TENSE Secondary aspectual functions are described for restricted contexts A special focus on the pragmatic or metaphorical use of present tense constructions in Tibetan leads to a typology of narrative conventions The last part also offers some suggestions for the reconstruction of the Proto Tibetan verb system The Development of Past Tense Morphology in L2 Spanish M. Rafael Salaberry,2001-02-12

This book presents an extended analysis of the development of L2 Spanish past tense morphology among L1 English speaking learners The study addresses three major questions 1 what is the developmental pattern of acquisition of past tense verbal morphology among tutored learners 2 what are the relevant factors that may account for the particular distribution of morphological endings especially at the beginning stages and 3 how does instruction affect the movement from one stage to the next The analysis provides a reassessment of the general claim of Andersen s lexical aspect hypothesis and proposes minor changes that may render the hypothesis more appropriate for especially L2 classroom learning The study includes an overview of theoretical positions on the notion of lexical versus grammatical aspect and a comparison of the findings from previous empirical studies on the development of past tense verbal morphology among both classroom and naturalistic learners

The Acquisition of the Present Dalila Ayoun,2015-10-15 This is the first edited volume that tackles the acquisition of the present tense aspect temporality an under researched area particularly compared to the acquisition of past temporality The first two chapters focus on the L1 acquisition of English from the perspective of the Aspect hypothesis and the Verb Island hypothesis Wang Shirai and the L1 acquisition of French from the perspective of the zero tense hypothesis Demirdache Lungu The remaining chapters tackle the L2 acquisition of English Liszka Al Thubaiti Vraciu French Ayoun Saillard Spanish Gabriele et al Russian Martelle and Japanese Shirai Li by learners of different L1s French English Arabic Chinese and Korean testing various semantic and syntactic hypotheses The last chapter presents a summary of the findings and offers a few conclusions as well as broad directions for future research The Story of French Jean-Benoît
