Half in Love With Death Joel Paris,2017-09-25 Half in Love With Death presents a new way for therapists to manage chronically suicidal patients an incredibly challenging task for clinicians and one where an insufficient amount of literature exists to guide professionals Author Joel Paris suggests an approach that defies conventional wisdoms about whether suicide can be predicted or prevented He asserts that managing chronically suicidal patients begins with tolerating suicidality understanding the inner world of patients avoiding repeated hospitalizations and focusing on life situations that maintain suicidal ideas and behaviors Each chapter in the book develops a theoretical perspective based on empirical data and many are illustrated by clinical examples Topics addressed throughout the text include distinctions among various types of suicidality the inner world of the chronically suicidal patient with a particular focus on pain emptiness and hopelessness the relationship between chronic suicidality and personality disorders especially the category of borderline personality the effectiveness of psychotherapy and pharmacotherapy for chronically suicidal patients and the risks of litigation in managing this patient population This volume is a crucially important resource for clinicians who treat chronically suicidal patients as it fills a gap in existing literature and provides enlightened guidelines that stem from a large body of research in the field Ethics, Theoretical and Practical Alexander Stuart Hunter,1900

Too Brief a Treat Truman Capote,2012-05-15 The private letters of Truman Capote lovingly assembled here for the first time by acclaimed Capote biographer Gerald Clarke provide an intimate unvarnished portrait of one of the twentieth century's most colorful and fascinating literary figures Capote was an inveterate letter writer He wrote letters as he spoke emphatically spontaneously and passionately Spanning more than four decades his letters are the closest thing we have to a Capote autobiography showing us the uncannily self possessed naïf who jumped headlong into the post World War II New York literary scene the more mature Capote of the 1950s the Capote of the early 1960s immersed in the research and writing of In Cold Blood and Capote later in life as things seem to be unraveling With cameos by a veritable who's who of twentieth century glitterati Too Brief a Treat shines a spotlight on the life and times of an incomparable American writer

Osho,2016-07-19 One of the most important life events is falling in love yet we never learn about it in school Societies and religions force us into models and thought forms that are often in opposition to an organic model of love which is instead institutionalised by marriage religious affiliations and nationalism This results in love that is for most people a painful challenge in one form or another throughout life In these modern days where the focus shifts more and more to realising one's individual potential Osho helps us to direct our search for love by widening our view showing us that love has many manifestations and is not limited to the other One manifestation of love is meditation a life changing experience that allows the flowering of real love within oneself and toward others The Osho Life Essentials series focuses on the most important questions in the life of the individual Each volume contains timeless yet contemporary investigations and discussions into questions vital to our personal search for meaning and purpose The Osho Life Essentials series focuses on questions specific to our inner life and quality of existence for example is it possible to have an authentic spirituality without a belief in God

What is meditation and how does it work What can I do as an individual to make the world a better place
