1. Environmental - This refers to a range of factors that impact the good human and planetary environment, particularly the climate & water issues. The individuals that are involved are, as before, the corporations, mainly the USA and the EU (which is not included in the report). The main activities described here focus on environmental management. However, they point out that there is a need to regulate the corporate behavior. Policy efforts have been made by government. The corporate environmental management and corporate policy are not included in the report.
