

Essay on My Dream School

My dream school is a place where students feel safe, inspired, and motivated to learn. It is a place where teachers are passionate about their subjects and are dedicated to helping students succeed. The classrooms are equipped with the latest technology and resources to enhance the learning experience.

In my dream school, there are opportunities for students to explore their interests and talents through a variety of extracurricular activities such as sports, music, art, and drama. The school also promotes a culture of inclusivity and diversity, where students from all backgrounds feel accepted and valued.

Furthermore, my dream school has a strong focus on character development and instills values such as respect, integrity, and empathy in its students. It encourages critical thinking, creativity, and problem-solving skills to prepare students for success in the real world.

Overall, my dream school is a place where students are inspired to reach their full potential and become lifelong learners.

Stanley's Dream

Jacalyn Duffin, 2019-08-30 In 1964-65 an international team of thirty-eight scientists and assistants led by Montreal physician Stanley Skoryna sailed to the mysterious Rapa Nui Easter Island to conduct an unprecedented survey of its biosphere. Born of Cold War concerns about pollution, overpopulation and conflict and initially conceived as the first of two trips, the project was designed to document the island's status before a proposed airport would link the one thousand people living in humanity's remotest community to the rest of the world: its germs, genes, culture and economy. Based on archival papers, diaries, photographs and interviews with nearly twenty members of the original team, Stanley's Dream sets the expedition in its global context within the early days of ecological research and the understudied International Biological Program. Jacalyn Duffin traces the origins, the voyage, the often complicated life within the constructed camp, the scientific preoccupations, the role of women, the resultant reports, films and publications, and the previously unrecognized accomplishments of the project, including a goodwill tour of South America, the delivery of vaccines and the discovery of a wonder drug. For Rapa Nui, the expedition coincided with its rebellion against the colonizing Chilean military, resulting in its first democratic election. For Canada, it reflected national optimism as the country prepared for its centennial and adopted its own flag. Ending with Duffin's own journey to the island to uncover the legacy of the study and the impact of the airport and to elicit local memories, Stanley's Dream is an entertaining and poignant account of a long forgotten but important Canadian-led international expedition.

What Kind of America R. Eugene Spitzer, 2012-08 This is an excellent book for people who are tired and fed up with what they see happening to their country. Whether it's failing schools, a failing federal government, a failing economy, huge debt and massive unemployment, you'll want to read this book. Hollywood is a cesspool likened to Sodom and Gomorrah. Rap music offends almost everyone and is full of degrading lyrics. The whole alternative energy push by this President is a scam. Man-made global warming is another big scam, and Al Gore is making tens of millions of dollars from it. What's all this stuff about diversity being good for America? Show me. You want alternative energy to replace oil? It'll be here in about 25 years, get over it. Our federal government is broken, out of control and arrogant and unable to effectively govern. We should toss them all out and start over using the Constitution as the standard for office. It's all in here, and it is most assuredly politically incorrect. The author does not subscribe to Cultural Marxism from which politically correct evolved. If you are easily offended, don't read this book because if you're offended, it's your problem, not his. This is volume 1 in what the author believes will be a 3-volume set, and he goes after all of the bad people, bad groups and bad ideas.
