

My Father

- My father is my hero and is the best person in my life.
- He is the one whom I look up to for all my desires and dreams.
- He faces all the difficulties without letting us know any of them.
- My father is the one whom I go to when I can't handle anything in life.
- He is the one who has taught me all the good manners and ethics in life.
- He will guide me in every decision of my life.

MCMAHON,2009-11-03 THE WAY IT WAS is a compilation of several non fiction short stories at various periods in the past of a woman s and her family s lives At times it may seem like extraordinary happenings to the people of these stories but they did happen The stories represent truthful views of a family that were at times hilarious poignant heartwarming thoughtful and sometimes sad These short stories are thought provoking with touches of humor and a bit of satire These stories take place in an extraordinary period in history several years before World War II and a few years after two other wars They happened when most women did not do the things that the grandmother did in her stories and at other times what a mother accomplished when most women did not have executive positions in traditionally heavy industrial manufacturing male oriented companies The woman in these unique stories had the courage and the intestinal fortitude to carry on through many discouraging times and still find the humor to laugh at herself The young man a typical young and naive teenager shows ingenuity and drive which showed up in later years again when he received the Bronze Star for his service to our country A story that has yet to be told The sister blazed a trail to be one of the first in her field for a major company There are lessons for the young to learn and a verification of life as it was or could have been by elders It is also the process of a written history to the families of the people in days long past The stories show that good stories can and are written that do not have to be filled with unsuitable language or sex to be exciting and interesting

Women and the Politics of Military Confrontation Nahla Abdo-Zubi, Ronit Lentin, 2002 Extrait de la couverture As the crisis in Israel does not show any signs of abating this remarkable collection edited by an Israeli and a Palestinian scholar and with contributions by Palestinian and Israeli women offers a vivid and harrowing picture of the conflict and of its impact of daily life especially as it affects women s experiences that differ significantly from those of men The auto biographical narratives in this volume focus on some of the most disturbing effects of the Israeli Palestinian conflict a sense of dislocation that goes well beyond the geographical meaning of the word it involves social cultural national and gender dislocation including alienation from one s own home family community and society The accounts become even more poignant if seen against the backdrop of the roots of the conflict the real or imaginary construct of a state to save and shelter particularly European Jews from the horrors of Nazism in parallel to the other side of the coin Israel as a settler colonial state responsible for the displacement of the Palestinian nation
