

My School Life

During school days, I have developed an interest in playing games, staging dramas, debating and other extra-curricular activities.

I am a good debater and orator, athlete, and sportsman and at the same time, I hold top positions in the class in the academic field. All the qualities of head and heart have earned me a profound love and respect from my teachers and friends. My teachers encourage and help me in all possible ways. I am in the good books of all the teachers as well as the principal because I have won many medals, trophies, shields, and certificates for my extraordinary display of abilities in examinations, athletics, debates, and theatre.

I do not feel discouraged and disheartened because for me the failures are the stepping stones to success. My school life is a great and valuable experience, the best teacher. I shall always remember my school days fondly.

School Life ,1940 Grad School Life Jacqueline M. Kory-Westlund,2024-04-02 Grad school isn't easy. It's even less easy when you're also managing a second job, a family, or depression, or when you are a first-generation student or if you come from an underrepresented group or a lower socioeconomic status background. Grad students are overworked, overstressed, and over it. Most grad school advice books focus on the professional side: finding funding, managing research, and teaching and applying for academic jobs. But students today face a difficult job market. Only a handful will obtain coveted tenure-track professorships, so they need alternative career prep. Plus, grad school is only one part of your life. It will help you keep up a personal life, make the most of your time, and prepare for your career, whether in academia or beyond. Duke, 1985 Chinese literature has been the slave of politics at least since 1948 and especially during the Cultural Revolution
So repressed and convoluted is most Chinese literature that the West cannot read it as literature at all but rather as the significant changes in the Chinese Party line on literature and art during this period and thus provides the backdrop for literary and artistic endeavor Subsequent chapters deal with the critique of Chinese literature by China's own writers the neo realistic fiction of 1979-80 the nonfiction works of a courageous investigative reporter for the People's Daily and the theme of humanism and its treatment in the works of Bai Hua and Dai Houying The final chapter discusses the post Mao generation of young writers who are trying to create works that go beyond narrowly ideological boundaries of the past and reach toward a true modern Chinese literature
