Each one of us have their own dreams who want to achieve it. There is no easy thing in this world. We should work hard for it. But sometimes faith is trying to fool us, no matter how hard a person try he/she can also feel failures in it. But, this doesn't mean we should stop of dreaming.

For me, I keep on dreaming for my future and actually I have a lot of dreams that I want to achieve like finding my collegiate and to have a good career in the dear future. To have an own car and support my brother in their education so that the burdens of my parents will be lessen. By the time comes, when I can build my own family. I can give my children a better food, shelter, cloth and the most important is education. To be honest, there's still none these dreams that I have mention comes true but I don't loose hope on it. I'm still young and there is still a long way to walk. As long as I have faith to God and work hard in order to achieve my dreams and one day my dreams can comes true. When I was a kid I have a dream of becoming a soldier for our country but as I grew old I realize that I just want to become a successful businessman or have a good career in the field of Multimedia Arts. Back in my elementary days, I have a dream of becoming a varsity player when I reach high school. Fortunately, In first year after finish the tryout I was one of those few selected to become varsity player although I was just a reserved player I was very grateful because there are only 3 first year player that have been selected.

Dreams need a full support from friends and relative. A dreams can come true if it is in your destiny. Only God knows what is best for us. Failure makes a person more stronger and better. And if one day, a dream came true in our lives, we are blessed by the Lord and keep continue dreaming.

The English Short Story in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2017-04-20 In 2013 the Nobel Prize for Literature was for the first time awarded to a short story writer and to a Canadian Alice Munro The award focused international attention on a genre that had long been thriving in Canada particularly since the 1960s This book traces the development and highlights of the English language Canadian short story from the late 19th century up to the present The history as well as the theoretical approaches to the genre are covered with in depth examination of exemplary stories by prominent writers such as Margaret Atwood and Alice Munro

The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story

Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany

Stout, 2007 Picturing a Different West addresses Willa Cather and Mary Austin as central figures in a women's tradition of the pictured West Both Cather and Austin moved west in their youth and spent much of their lives there Cather lived on the Great Plains while Austin resided in California and the Southwest Cather's travels repeatedly took her to the Southwest and she wrote three novels with Southwestern settings Starting with the masculine tradition of Western art that was prevalent when Austin and Cather launched their careers Janis P Stout shows how the authors challenged and revised that tradition Rather than a West of adventure violence and conquest open only to rugged and daring men the authors envisioned a new West not conventionally feminine so much as an androgynous space of freedom for women and men alike Their vision of an alternative West and their alternative ways of thinking about and portraying gender are inseparable Placing Cather and Austin alongside contemporaries Elsie Clews Parsons Mabel Dodge Luhan Georgia O Keeffe and Laura Gilpin Stout emphasizes the visual nature of Austin's and Cather's personal experiences of the West and Southwest their awareness of the prevailing visual representations of the West and the visual nature of their books about the West with respect to both prose style and illustrations In closing Stout demonstrates the continuance of their tradition in illustrated
