Have a Look at write five paragraph essays

1. Lay out a basic outline of what the essay is supposed to do. Ask questions during class to find out if there are any off limits sources. Write down any outlines you were given by the professor, as well as recommendations about what sources are acceptable by that professor. (The sources allowed by one professor may not be allowed by another, treat every class as a unique course with unique demands.)

2. Research the topic, and try to get material that is from established sources (universities, etc.) try not to get too lost in off topic research. When researching for an essay, you do not need to get drawn well off topic into material that you can't use. Be aware of where the material you are reading is from, as it may be material that sounds perfectly valid, but has no basis in provable fact, or could be from a source that isn't considered valid by the professor.

3. For all those who are beginning to write essays, there are certain rules or tips that can help them to create a perfect essay. Always include the personal experiences, as the readers are not interested in what happened with your family and friends. Do not make personal attacks, when you are writing on any issue that
