Shriver Poikani Kevin:

We Need to Talk About Kevin Lionel Shriver, 2011-05-01 The inspiration for the film starring Tilda Swinton and John C Reilly this resonant story of a mother's unsettling quest to understand her teenage son's deadly violence her own ambivalence toward motherhood and the explosive link between them remains terrifyingly prescient Eva never really wanted to be a mother And certainly not the mother of a boy who murdered seven of his fellow high school students a cafeteria worker and a much adored teacher in a school shooting two days before his sixteenth birthday Neither nature nor nurture exclusively shapes a child's character But Eva was always uneasy with the sacrifices and social demotion of motherhood Did her internalized dislike for her own son shape him into the killer he's become How much is her fault Now two years later it is time for her to come to terms with Kevin's horrific rampage all in a series of startlingly direct correspondences with her estranged husband Franklin A piercing unforgettable and penetrating exploration of violence and responsibility a book that the Boston Globe describes as impossible to put down is a stunning examination of how tragedy affects a town a marriage and a family
