expanded second edition carries forward the initial insights into the biological and existential significances of animation by taking contemporary research findings in cognitive science and philosophy and in neuroscience into critical and constructive account. It first takes affectivity as its focal point elucidating it within both an enactive and qualitative affective kinetic dynamic. It follows through with a thoroughgoing interdisciplinary inquiry into movement from three perspectives: mind, brain and the conceptually reciprocal realities of receptivity and responsivity as set forth in phenomenology and evolutionary biology respectively. It ends with a substantive afterword on kinesthesia pointing up the incontrovertible significance of the faculty to cognition and affectivity. Series A

Pagan Fleshworks Maureen Mercury, 2000-09-01 A groundbreaking work that sees the contemporary cultural trends of tattooing, piercing, implanting and branding as a quest for a transformative psychic experience. Features unforgettable color photographs by Steve Haworth, the foremost body modification artist in the United States. Introduces a subculture that has gone far beyond the realm of simple tattooing. Acts of body modification are deeply rooted in physical impulses that are obscured in our technological society. As we become more removed from the physicality of our existence, we lose touch with an essential part of our humanity. Body modification is a way of reconnecting to our bodies, to the earth and to the divine. Pagan Fleshworks reveals that the prevalence of body modification, tattooing, piercings, brandings and implants is the postmodern way to heal the body and enliven the soul. These fleshworks are the result of people creating their own rituals and symbols of meaning in order to feel a sense of the divine within. Maureen Mercury relates the various stages of obtaining fleshworks to the stages of alchemy, showing how fleshworks lead to psychic transformation, soul making. Using mythological imagery and the stories of those who have chosen to modify their bodies, she identifies the signposts of our journey toward self-expression, exploring the connection between our desires and our outward life. More than 30 riveting color photographs by leading body modification artist Steve Haworth provide the perfect visual complement to this examination of the soul as it rises toward freedom.
