Divine and Human Comedy of Andrew M. Greeley Allienne R. Becker, 2000-08-30 The volume approaches Greeley's novels by comparing him to the 19th century French writer Honoré de Balzac A prolific and popular author Balzac recorded his milieu in tremendous detail created a fictional universe peopled by hundreds of characters and explored the role of Catholicism in his world Because of his training as a sociologist Greeley brings to his novels a thorough knowledge of popular culture and social theory And because of his experience as a Roman Catholic priest he has gained special knowledge of vice virtue and the workings of the Church Like Balzac now a major canonical author Greeley has created a world of numerous fictional persons mapped the details of his culture and explored the place of Catholicism in contemporary life A

Metaphysics of Love George Pattison, 2021 As the third part of a philosophy of Christian life A Metaphysics of Love builds on a view of Christian life as shaped by the dynamic of call response and promise It argues that love is the ultimate content of this dynamic and considers how far this claim extends Taking its bearings from Dante's vision of divine love as the power that moves the sun and other stars this study explores the requirement that love is both human and cosmic uniting being and beings Cognizant of much recent philosophy's desire to overcome or move beyond a metaphysics of being it examines some of the formal structures that make love possible including language time social being forgiveness and ultimacy Following on from the earlier volumes extensive use is made of the idea of the poetic as the eminent mode of Christian witness contextualized within the prose of everyday life Heidegger provides fundamental philosophical orientation whilst key features of love are brought to the fore through dialogue with Kierkegaard Dante and Dostoevsky are frequent points of reference in addition to a range of literary and religious sources including the Scottish poet Edwin Muir Leading scholar George Pattison concludes that the phenomenon of love requires us to articulate a metaphysics that involves both being and nothingness thereby taking a critical position vis vis both classical theism and existential atheism Waves of Hope Judith
