Public Service Broadcasting and Post-Authoritarian Indonesia Masduki,2020-10-22 This book investigates public service broadcasting PSB models in post authoritarian regimes and offers a critical inspection of the development of a Western European originated PSB system in Asian transitional societies in particular in Indonesia since the 1990 s Placing the case of Indonesia s PSB within the context of global media liberalization this book traces the development of public service broadcasting in post authoritarian societies including the arrival of neoliberal policy and the growth of media oligarchs that favour free market media systems over public interest media systems The book argues that Western European PSB models or BBC like models have travelled to new democracies and that autocratic legacies embedded in former state owned radio and television broadcasters have resisted pro democratic media pressures As such similar to new PSBs in other post colonial transitional and global south regimes such as in Arab states or Bangladesh this book demonstrates that the adoption of PSB in Indonesia has not reflected the ideal PSB project initially envisaged by media advocates but was flawed in both media policy and governance It explores the history of broadcast governance in authoritarian Indonesia and considers how Western European PSB or British Broadcasting Corporation BBC like models have travelled somewhat uneasily to new democracies but also how autocratic legacies embedded in former state owned radio and television channels have resisted external parties of pro democratic media systems

American Political Music Danny O. The Living Elephants Raman Sukumar, 2003-09-11 The Living Elephants is the authoritative resource for information on both Asian and African elephants From the ancient origins of the proboscideans to the present day crisis of the living elephants this volume synthesizes the behavior ecology and conservation of elephants while covering also the history of human interactions with elephants all within the theoretical framework of evolutionary biology The book begins with a survey of the 60 million year evolutionary history of the proboscideans emphasizing the role of climate and vegetation change in giving rise to a bewildering array of species but also discussing the possible role of humans in the late Pleistocene extinction of mastodons and mammoths The latest information on the molecular genetics of African and Asian elephants and its taxonomic implications are then presented The rise of the elephant culture in Asia and its early demise in Africa are traced along with an original interpretation of this unique animal human relationship The book then moves on to the social life of elephants as it relates to reproductive strategies of males and females development of behavior in young communication ranging patterns and societal organization The foraging strategies of elephants their impact on the vegetation and landscape are then discussed The dynamics of elephant populations in relation to hunting for ivory and their population viability are described with the aid of mathematical models A detailed account of elephant human interactions includes a treatment of crop depredation by elephants in relation to their natural ecology manslaughter by elephants habitat manipulation by humans and a history of the ivory trade and poaching in the two continents The ecological information is brought together in the final chapter to formulate a set of pragmatic recommendations for the long term conservation of elephants The broadest treatment of the subject yet undertaken by one of the leading workers in the field Raman Sukumar the book promises to bring the understanding of elephants to a new level It should be of interest not only to biologists but also a broader audience including field ecologists wildlife administrators historians conservationists and all those interested in elephants and their future

Bioceramics and Alternative Bearings in Joint Arthroplasty James A. D'Antonio, Martin Dietrich, 2006-03-10 Dear Colleague and Participant in Bioceramics and Alternative Bearings In Joint Arthroplasty 10 International BIOLOX Symposium We are once again very proud that we are able to present to you the proceedings of the Symposium as part of your registration materials This group accomplishment has been made possible by the superb cooperation received from the speakers in sending us their manuscripts on a timely basis as well as by the supporting staff at both CeramTec and at the Publishing House in executing all of the details needed. We specially extend our most heartfelt thanks to the Scientific Committee for their assistance in evaluating and selecting the submissions as well as developing the Symposium program. We are more convinced than ever that the proceedings of this Symposium are a continuation of CeramTec's tradition of providing all members of the orthopedic surgical community with a valuable addition to your reference libraries. We hope that this book will present you with the latest and most up to date source of scientific and clinical information regarding the use of ceramics and other alternative bearings in joint replacement surgery.

Welding Metallurgy Sindo Kou, 2020-10-06 Discover the extraordinary progress that welding metallurgy has experienced over the last two decades. Welding Metallurgy 3rd Edition is the only complete compendium of recent and not so recent developments in the science and practice of welding metallurgy. Written by Dr Sindo Kou, this edition covers solid state welding as well as fusion welding which now also includes resistance spot welding. It restructures and expands sections on Fusion Zones and Heat Affected Zones. The former now includes entirely new chapters on microsegregation, macrosegregation, ductility, dip cracking and alloys resistant to creep wear and corrosion as well as a new section on ternary alloy solidification. The latter now includes metallurgy of solid state welding. Partially Melted Zones are expanded to include liquation and cracking in friction stir welding and resistance spot welding. New chapters on topics of high current interest are added including additive manufacturing, dissimilar metal joining, magnesium alloys and high entropy alloys and metal matrix nanocomposites. Dr Kou provides the reader with hundreds of citations to papers and articles that will further enhance the reader's knowledge of this voluminous topic. Undergraduate students, graduate students, researchers and mechanical engineers will all benefit spectacularly from this comprehensive resource. The new edition includes new theories, methods of Kou and coworkers regarding Predicting the effect of filler metals on liquation cracking. An index and analytical equations for predicting susceptibility to solidification cracking. A test for susceptibility to solidification cracking and filler metal effect. Liquid metal quenching during welding. Mechanisms of resistance of stainless steels to solidification cracking and ductility dip cracking. Mechanisms of macrosegregation. Mechanisms of spatter of aluminum and magnesium filler metals. Liquation and cracking in dissimilar metal friction stir welding. Flow induced deformation and oscillation of weld pool surface and ripple formation. Multicomponent multiphase diffusion bonding. Dr Kou's Welding Metallurgy has been used the world over as an indispensable resource for students, researchers and engineers alike. This new Third Edition is no exception.
