The Anthropology of Western Religions Murray J. Leaf, 2014-05-21 The world's great religions depend on traditions of serious scholarship dedicated to preserving their key texts but also to understanding them and therefore to debating what understanding itself is and how best to do it They also have important public missions of many kinds and their ideas and organizations influence many other important institutions including government law education and kinship The Anthropology of Western Religions Ideas Organizations and Constituencies is a comparative survey of the world's major religious traditions as professional enterprises and often as social movements Documenting the principle ideas behind Western religious traditions from an anthropological perspective Murray J Leaf demonstrates how these ideas have been used in building internal organizations that mobilize or fail to mobilize external support

Managing Modernity in the Western Pacific Martha Macintyre, 2014-06-01 Fast money schemes in Papua New Guinea collectivities in rural Solomon Islands gambling in the Cook Islands and the Vanuatu tax haven all feature in the interface between Pacific and global economies Since the 1970s Melanesian countries and their peoples have been beguiled by the prospect of economic development that would enable them to participate in a world market economic system Access to global markets would provide the means to improve their standard of living allowing them to take their places as independent nations in a modern world Managing Modernity in the Western Pacific takes a broad sweep through contemporary topics in Melanesian anthropology and ethnography With nuanced and rigorous scholarship it views contemporary debate on modernity in Melanesia within the context of the global economy and cultural capitalism In particular contributors assess local ideas about wealth success speculation and development and their connections to participation in institutions and activities generated by them This innovative and accessible collection offers a new intersection between Western Pacific anthropology and global studies

The Anthropology of Religious Charisma C. Lindholm, 2013-12-18 According to Max Weber charisma is opposed to bureaucratic order This collection reveals the limits of that formula The contributors show how charisma is a part of cultural frameworks while retaining its ecstatic character among American and Italian Catholics Syrian Sufis Taiwanese Buddhists Hassidic Jews and Amazonian shamans among others

Traditional Cultures Glenn E. King, 2003

Discovering World Religions at 24 Frames Per Second Julien R. Fielding, 2008-09-26 Traditionally university students have gained access to world religions by reading primary texts Discovering World Religions at 24 Frames Per Second takes students beyond the written page offering an exploration of the same religious traditions through the study of feature films The many definitions of religion are examined along with its various components including doctrine myth ethics ritual and symbol Specific religious traditions including Hinduism Sikhism Zoroastrianism Buddhism Confucianism Daoism popular religion and Shinto are examined Biographical sketches of directors whose films tend to focus on a particular religious tradition are also included such as Zhang Yimou Hayao Miyazaki Deepa Mehta and Akira Kurosawa Discovering World Religions at 24 Frames Per Second is unique in the area of religion and film studies in that it isn't just a collection of essays Instead it provides the introductory student with the necessary background information on the various religions before looking at how their ideas can be understood not through texts but through the cinematic medium To keep the conversation fresh most of the films used in the book were made within the last decade Furthermore examples range from popular mainstream fare such as Star Wars and the Lord of the Rings trilogy to lesser known foreign films such as The Wooden Man's Bride and The Great Yokai War Several films with a cult like following are also discussed including Fight Club Princess Mononoke Spirited Away and Jacob's Ladder This book is also unique in that instead of drawing upon the Judeo Christian tradition it draws from Eastern traditions

Religion and Culture Raymond Scupin, 2008 For sophomore junior level courses in World Religions and Anthropology of Religion in departments of Anthropology Sociology and Religion Religion and Culture introduces students to the major World religions and aboriginal religious traditions This edited volume presents all aspects of the anthropological perspective on religion Contributing authors provide a unique assembly of various topics and traditions that are researched by contemporary anthropologists

Archaeology of Religion Sharon R. Steadman, 2016-07-01 Steadman fills an empty niche in the offerings on how archaeology interprets past religions with this useful textbook The book includes case studies from around the world from the study of Upper Paleolithic religions and of shamans in foraging societies to formal religious structures in advanced complex societies of Mesopotamia Egypt India and the Andes Steadman also includes key contemporary religions Christianity Islam and Buddhism among others to provide an historical and comparative context This is an ideal text for a archaeology of religion courses and classes that include a significant component on past religions as well as an excellent guide for general readers

Journal of Indian Philosophy and Religion ,2008

One World, Many Neighbors Perry C. Cotham,2008 Is there a God who calls us to a discipleship of our minds What is the uniqueness of Christianity Do the major non Christian worldviews and world religions have any insights or inspiration to offer those who have chosen the Christian journey Is God at work within the various religions drawing people to himself Addressing provocative questions like these Professor Perry Cotham challenges readers to re examine long held attitudes on life s most crucially important issues
