It is also characterised by radical religious pluralism thereby facilitating an appreciation of the impact of religion on women's leadership in Africa more generally. This volume reflects on the role of Zimbabwean women in religious cultural leadership with a specific focus on roles within religious organizations. It begins by examining Zimbabwean church women's leadership roles in long established faith communities. The chapters then hone in on the emergence of churches or ministries founded by women in Zimbabwe starting from the pre colonial era and advancing through the last forty years of independence. Hence the book offers a comprehensive assessment of the challenges and opportunities women in leadership face in religious institutions in the country before exploring the impact of the pandemic on the ability of women to lead. It will make a major contribution to the advancement of scholarship of gender and leadership in emerging markets. 2010 Millennium Development Goals, 2010

Millennium Development Goals Zimbabwe, 2010      The Soapstone Birds of Great Zimbabwe Edward Matenga, 1998
Beautifully produced and illustrated this study of the Zimbabwean birds is more than a description or history of the eight soapstone carvings found at the Great Zimbabwe historical site. It offers an insight into an aspect of the cultural heritage of Zimbabwe and an interpretation of the important site of Great Zimbabwe from which it is inherited. The story of the birds is used to explore themes in Zimbabwean historiography. By focusing on the religious symbolism of the birds the author argues that the Great Zimbabwe site was both a political and religious centre. Practically the work illustrates the central symbolic meaning of the birds to the people and nation of Zimbabwe. And the work is in the context of the construction of an authentic national history. In a foreword the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Zimbabwe says that the birds are constituents of a living tradition embodying the body spirit of the modern national state of Zimbabwe. Religious Studies 2042 Zimbabwe School Examinations Council (Zimsec) (Harare), 2002      Religious Studies 8560/9560, O-Level Syllabus Zimbabwe School Examinations Council (ZIMSEC), Zimbabwe General Certificate of Education (ZGCE), 2013      Religious studies Oxford and Cambridge Schools Examination Board,
