

The background of the cover is a soft-focus photograph of a man and a woman. The man, on the right, is wearing a light-colored, long-sleeved shirt and is holding the woman's hand. The woman, on the left, is wearing a white, short-sleeved dress. They appear to be in a close embrace. In the bottom right corner, there is a detailed illustration of several white lilies with green leaves and stems. The text is overlaid on the image.

Remember The Lilies:

The Ragged School Union Quarterly Record ,1882 Suicidal Maniacs and the Lady of Shalott Roberta Morris,2012-10 The daughter s story is not the mother s nor is it that of Tennysons Lady of Shalott where freedom is suicide No Eliza is the author of her own fate but with their family of five shrunk to the two of them the mother daughter dyad must be split Like splitting an atom the energy released can be explosive though more vital than deadly My Garden (Book) Jamaica Kincaid,2025-09-23 One of our finest writers on one of her greatest loves Jamaica Kincaid s first garden in Vermont was a plot in the middle of her front lawn There to the consternation of more experienced friends she planted only seeds of the flowers she liked best In My Garden Book she gathers all she loves about gardening and plants and examines it generously passionately and with sharp idiosyncratic discrimination Kincaid s affections are matched in intensity only by her dislikes She loves spring and summer but cannot bring herself to love winter for it hides the garden She adores the rhododendron Jane Grant and appreciates ordinary Blue Lake string beans but abhors the Asiatic lily The sources of her inspiration seed catalogues the gardener Gertrude Jekyll gardens like Monet s at Giverny are subjected to intense scrutiny She also examines the idea of the garden on Antigua where she grew up My Garden Book is an intimate playful and penetrating book on gardens the plants that fill them and the persons who tend them The Depth of Forgiveness Dionne Watson,2009-11 A Must Read Riveting and Mind boggling Novel Naomi A Beaman At the age of seventeen Maree was already a successful top model However she became so caught up in her career that God and the church were no longer a part of her life At eighteen she graduated at the top of her class and was accepted to the University of Los Angeles Her manager Tony signed her with Jade Cosmetics in LA and for what they were paying she wasn t about to turn it down so she signed on to be a full time student and career woman Her dad wanted her to stay closer to New York but her mom insisted she go to LA Were her mother s intentions genuine or did Maree s mom quickly ship her off to hide a secret The night before she left for LA she was hanging out with her friends not knowing that what was about to happen to her would change her life Now Maree had to learn how to forgive and to understand the depth of forgiveness Call This Baby "Margaret Marie" Margaret M. Boykin,2013-03-29 The best lessons I learn are those I learn for myself the hard way making mistakes I paid a much higher emotional price for my learning with what I call bought sense As far as I am concerned bought sense is the best but it s the most expensive Negative consequences come back to haunt thereafter Weekly Florists' Review Gilbert Leonard Grant,1926 Annals of some of the British Norman isles constituting the bailiwick of Guernsey. [With] Postscript John Jacob (of Guernsey.),1830 Savannah to Suburbia Mary Edmunds,Nawal El-Gack,2019-04-01 This book is the story of South Sudanese Australians told in their own voices At one level it s a single story a story of war of loss of violent displacement of the rupturing of ordinary life for these people It tells of years in refugee camps of the journeys that brought them to Australia and of the new life they re forging for themselves and their families here But this story has been experienced by individuals by ordinary people caught up in extraordinary events events that have become all too common in our present world Before Syria South Sudan had already become a byword for never ending relentless civil war famine and desperate children women and men So the story is multi faceted It s many stories and those are the personal stories that make up this book Some of those stories those of the Lost Boys have already been told in books film and song There s almost nothing yet from others especially from the women whose lives were also shattered by these wars Their stories are of the loss of children parents and husbands of the deaths and forced abandonment of newborns of multiple forced displacements But the stories are also stories of survival and resilience The twenty seven people who tell their stories in this book recount the different routes that finally brought them to Australia of their gratitude to be in a country with no war and of their determination to make a contribution and to forge a good life here for themselves and especially for their families and children demonstrating how wrong are political accusations of non integration and sensationalist reporting about African gangs in Melbourne

Growing Up Religious Robert Wuthnow,2000-03-10 Wuthnow provides a unique window into the religious psyche of ordinary Americans Zachary Karabell Los Angeles Times Memories of religious experiences remain in our minds like few others In Growing Up Religious Robert Wuthnow the most informed and insightful commentator on American religion today Harvey Cox follows the lives of ordinary people to see how their childhood experiences inform both their adult sense of spirituality and their relation to issues of faith and tradition
