Israelis and Palestinians in the Shadows of the Wall Stéphanie Latte Abdallah, Cédric Parizot, 2016-03-09 Shedding light on the recent mutations of the Israeli separation policy whose institutional and spatial configurations are increasingly complex this book argues that this policy has actually reinforced the interconnectedness of Israeli and Palestinian lives and their spaces Instead of focusing on the over mediated separation wall this book deals with what it hides its shadows Based on fieldwork studies carried out by French Italian Israeli Palestinian and Swiss researchers on the many sides of the Israeli Palestinian divide it highlights a new geography of occupation specific forms of interconnectedness and power relations between Israeli and Palestinian spaces It offers a better understanding of the transformation of people's interactions their experiences and the ongoing economy of exchanges created by the separation regime This heterogeneous regime increasingly involves the participation of Palestinian and international actors Grounded in refined decryptions of territorial realities and of experiences of social actors daily lives this book goes beyond usual political media and security representations and discourses on conflict to understand its contemporary stakes on the ground

The Belgravia Sanction Gordon Bickerstaff, 2020-09-07 In a remote Scottish cottage two men and two women die from gunshot wounds Police believe one killed the other three before committing suicide One of the four worked undercover for the Lambeth Group and his team leader is missing To find out what happened a second team will follow the bread crumbs Led by Zoe Tampsin they expose a terrorist group operating in plain sight An attack is imminent It will destroy the special relationship between the UK and the USA Zoe and her team prepare to stop them Unaware of a deep seated traitor determined to stop her at any cost

Watching Neighbours Twice a Day... Josh Widdicombe, 2021-09-16 A wonderful blend of nostalgia hilarity and personal anecdotes that only Josh Widdicombe could deliver James Acaster If you read only one book by Josh Widdicombe this year make it this one Jack Dee Beautifully written cleverly crafted and charmingly funny Adam Hills This is a book about growing up in the 90s told through the thing that mattered most to me the television programmes I watched For my generation television was the one thing that united everyone There were kids at my school who liked bands kids who liked football and one weird kid who liked the French sport of petanque however we all loved Gladiators Neighbours and Pebble Mill with Alan Titchmarsh possibly not the third of these In his first memoir Josh Widdicombe tells the story of a strange rural childhood the kind of childhood he only realised was weird when he left home and started telling people about it From only having four people in his year at school to living in a family home where they didn't just not bother to lock the front door they didn't even have a key Using a different television show of the time as its starting point for each chapter Watching Neighbours Twice a Day is part childhood memoir part comic history of 90s television and culture It will discuss everything from the BBC convincing him that Michael Parkinson had been possessed by a ghost to Josh's belief that Mr Blobby is one of the great comic characters to what it's like being the only vegetarian child west of Bristol It tells the story of the end of an era the last time when watching television was a shared experience for the family and the nation before the internet meant everyone watched different things at different times on different devices headphones on to make absolutely sure no one else could watch it with them
