Seeing Through Religion Nathan McGovern, 2025-09-19 Seeing Through Religion is a cutting edge

textbook designed to help students in their study and research of the world's religious traditions. Providing the tools to learn this valuable subject theoretically, McGovern argues that religion isn't a thing out there in the world; it's the glasses on your face through which you see the world shaped by Western history and in particular Christianity. By exploring the major religious traditions and comparing stereotypes about them to reality, this textbook establishes how the lens of religion systematically distorts our perception of the world. Topics covered include: What Is Religion? Colonialism and the Two Faces of Orientalism; Islam: Does Fear Imply Difference? Buddhism: A Philosophy or a Religion? Hinduism: A Polytheistic or a Monotheistic Religion? Chinese Religion: What Is It and Where Can We Find It? Indian Religions: How Can One Religion Include Another? Tibetan Buddhism: Is It Still Buddhism? Judaism: A Religion or an Ethnicity? Indigenous Traditions: What Gets Counted as a Religion? Secularism: Can We Put Religion in a Box? How is the way we think about religion influenced by the theology of Martin Luther? How does the Christian paradigm of religion distort our perception of Christianity itself? This textbook not only provides a survey of important religious traditions but also guides the reader on how to study religion in a methodologically sophisticated way. This innovative volume is essential reading for those who want a contemporary and engaging approach to the study of world religions.

Encyclopedia of Death and Dying Glennys Howarth, Oliver Leaman, 2003-12-16 In recent years there has been a massive upsurge in academic, professional, and lay interest in mortality. This is reflected in academic and professional literature, in the popular media, and in the proliferation of professional roles and training courses associated with aspects of death and dying. Until now, the majority of reference material on death and dying has been designed for particular disciplinary audiences and has addressed only specific academic or professional concerns. There has been an urgent need for an authoritative but accessible reference work reflecting the multidisciplinary nature of the field. This Encyclopedia answers that need. The Encyclopedia of Death and Dying consolidates and contextualizes the disparate research that has been carried out to date. The phenomena of death and dying and its related concepts are explored and explained in depth from the approaches of varied disciplines and related professions in the arts, social sciences, humanities, medicine, and the sciences. In addition to scholars and students in the field, from anthropologists and sociologists to art and social historians, the Encyclopedia will be of interest to other professionals and practitioners whose work brings them into contact with dying, dead, and bereaved people. It will be welcomed as the definitive death and dying reference source and an essential tool for teaching, research, and independent study.

Religion and Modern Thought Victoria S. Harrison, 2007 Written specifically for level 2 undergraduates, this textbook introduces readers to the extremely wide range of forms of religious thought and the responses of religion to modern ideas, cultural phenomenon, and events of the 20th century.

In Search of the Sacred Seyyed Hossein Nasr, Ramin Jahanbegloo, 2010-07-14 In this book, a series of interviews offers an accessible, revealing human and intellectual biography of leading Islamic scholar Seyyed Hossein Nasr. Seyyed Hossein Nasr is one of the preeminent philosophers writing today. Sure to be a key resource for decades to come, In Search of the Sacred: A Conversation with Seyyed Hossein Nasr on His Life and Thought illuminates Nasr's experiences and shares his insights on topics from religion and philosophy to science and the arts. Based on a series of interviews, the book combines traditional autobiography with an exploration of the intellectual and spiritual trajectories of the author's thought during key periods of his life. In doing so, it presents a fascinating panorama not only of the life and ideas of one man but also of major events ranging from intellectual life in Iran during the Pahlavi period and the Iranian Revolution to some of the major religious and intellectual debates between Islam and modernism. Nasr writes that his whole life has been a quest for the sacred. This work connects that quest with some of the most important issues of the day in encounters between Islam and the West.

Eastern Religion for Western Gnostics Michael Faust, 2013-01-26. Is religion compatible with science? The Tao of Physics by Fritjof Capra famously attempted to draw parallels between modern physics and Eastern mysticism. What Capra conspicuously avoided was any comparison between the Abrahamic religions and physics. These religions of faith have no scientific component. The West has in the last few hundred years been the engine of scientific progress, yet the dominant religions of the West are anti-scientific. This has led to a damaging dichotomy in the Western mind. Doesn't the West have any enlightenment religions that might allow science and religion to find common ground? This book compares and contrasts the Gnostic religion of Illumination, the religion of the ancient secret society known as the Illuminati, with the main Eastern religions of Hinduism, Buddhism, and Taoism, and suggests that all four religions can be brought together under one banner: Enlightenment, that may stand in united opposition to Abrahamism, knowledge against faith.

Teilhard De Chardin and Eastern Religions U. M. King, 1977 Good and Bad Religion Peter Vardy, 2010-01-01 Intends to provide criteria to separate good and bad manifestations of religion found in the Western and Eastern philosophical conditions that there is a single human nature which all human beings share, and certain types of attitudes and behaviour can be profoundly damaging.

Religion, Christian Faith, and Secular World Hans Bringeland, Arve Brunvoll, 2019-01-07 What has been the role and understanding of religion in the last hundred years, and what can be the meaning of religion today? There is a well-known ongoing process of secularization in the Western world. Is there also a return of religion? And what does the fate of religion mean for an understanding of the Christian faith? These are topics of this book. The articles originate from the actual fields of research of an interdisciplinary group of scholars who took part in a symposium held in Bergen, Nov 2019. The contributions relate to specific contexts in the modern history of religion from the perspective of religious studies, theology, philosophy, and sociology.
