remembered in the history of England Charles Selby,1875 Resurrection Remembered David Graieg,2024-03-26 This book is the first major study to investigate Jesus resurrection using a memory approach It develops the logic for and the methodology of a memory approach including that there were about two decades between the events surrounding Jesus resurrection and the recording of those events in First Corinthians The memory of those events was frequently rehearsed perhaps weekly The transmission of the oral tradition occurred in various ways including the overlooked fourth model formal uncontrolled Consideration is given to an examination of the philosophy and psychology of memory including past and new research on 1 the constructive nature of memory 2 social memory 3 transience 4 memory distortion 5 false memories 6 the social contagion of memory and 7 flashbulb memory In addition this is the first New Testament study to consider the insights for a memory approach from the philosophical considerations of 1 forgetting and 2 the theories of remembering and from the psychological studies on 1 memory conformity 2 memory and age and 3 the effects of health on memory It is argued that Paul remembers Jesus as having been resurrected with a transformed physical body Furthermore the centrality of Jesus resurrection in Paul s theology suggests it was a deeply embedded memory of primary importance to the social identity of the early Christian communities New Testament scholars and students will want to take note of how this work advances the discussion in historical Jesus studies The broader Christian audience will also find the apologetic implications of interest

A Revolution Remembered Juan Nepomuceno Seguin,1991 A biography of a patriot of the Texas Revolution who fled to Mexico after escaping the fate of others at the Alamo after being sent for reinforcements The Middle East

Remembered Jacob Lassner,2000 A meditation on the art of history writing in the medieval Near East The Religion of Falun Gong Benjamin Penny,2012-03-01 In July 1999 a mere seven years after the founding of the religious movement known as the Falun Gong the Chinese government banned it Falun Gong is still active in other countries and its suppression has become a primary concern of human rights activists and is regularly discussed in dealings between the Chinese government and its Western counterparts But while much has been written on Falun Gong s relation to political issues no one has analyzed in depth what its practitioners actually believe and do The Religion of Falun Gong remedies that omission providing the first serious examination of Falun Gong teachings Benjamin Penny argues that in order to understand Falun

Gong one must grasp the beliefs practices and texts of the movement and its founder Li Hongzhi Contextualizing Li s ideas in terms of the centuries long Chinese tradition of self cultivation and the cultural world of 1980s and 90s China particularly the upwelling of biospiritual activity and the influx of translated works from the Western New Age movement Penny shows how both have influenced Li s writings and his broader view of the cosmos An illuminating look at this controversial movement The Religion of Falun Gong opens a revealing window into the nature and future of contemporary China The Musical Record ,1882 The Holocaust in South-Eastern Europe: Historiography, Archives Resources and Remembrance Adina Babeş – Fruchter,Ana Bărbulescu,2021-06-01 For many decades the Holocaust in South Eastern Europe lacked the required introspection research and study and most importantly access to archives and documentation Only in recent years and with the significant help of an emerging generation of local scholars the Holocaust from this region became the focus of many studies In 2018 under the European Holocaust Research Infrastructure umbrella the Elie Wiesel National Institute for the Study of the Holocaust in Romania organized a workshop dedicated to Holocaust research education and remembrance in South Eastern Europe The present volume is a natural continuation of the above mentioned workshop with the aim of introducing the current state of Holocaust research in the region to different categories of scholars in the field of Holocaust studies to students and why not to the general public Our scope not an exhaustive one is to present a historical contextualization using archival resources to display the variety of recordings of discrimination destruction and rescue efforts and to introduce the remembrance initiatives and processes developed in the region in the aftermath of the Holocaust
