

Reflection Paper - God is Love

I discovered that God is love. God is the root of everything good. God's love is at the heart of every Christian's faith. God loves no matter what. God's love always was and always will be. God showed us how much God loved us by sending us God's only son, Jesus, to save us. God also showed his love through creation. Everything God created is good. God gave us the power and free will to do whatever we want with God's gifts. We as Christians believe that God's love is everlasting and unfailing. No matter what we do, the only way a person can be separated from God's love is through our own choice. God lets us decide on our own, whether we accept his teachings.

I am still wondering how, if God made everything good, we still have suffering, poverty and death in our world today. I try to logically figure out what God must be planning for everybody in his or her life. I understand that we all have some mission to complete before we die. However, what that mission may be, is what puzzles me. Some of my close friends family members have died lately and through their deaths I have come to have many questions. Why does God take young teenagers before 90-year-old patients lying in hospitals? If God loves everyone equally then why does God choose some people to suffer more than others? So many people suffer in this world today, while others have very good lives. This puzzles me. However, I truly believe that God does not choose for people to suffer. Because God is love and we have free will, God is not completely in charge of what happens. I know that God must have a plan for all of us and everything happens for a reason. However sometimes I still wonder what God is thinking.

I am challenged to accept all of God's teachings even if I do not understand them. I need to ask more personal questions and through them seek to find new answers. I have learned to question my faith more, after realizing it is all right to. However, I still need to try to work things through and rely on what I have been taught. I have a hard time trying to figure out what God has planned for me, but my faith challenges me to trust God's teachings and have faith in those around me.

Theological Reflection and Education for Ministry John E. Paver, 2016-02-17 A major and continuing problem for theological education and the practice of Christian ministry is how to best achieve a genuine integration between theory and practice theology and experience The key claim of this book is that theological reflection beginning with experience is a method of integration and that pastoral supervision is a vehicle for theological reflection In establishing this claim John Paver demonstrates that the model and method have potential to be a catalyst for reform within theological colleges and seminaries Three different theological reflection models are developed and critiqued in this book and their capacity to be developed in particular contexts is explored This book does not stop at ministry cultural and personal integration but is bold enough to make recommendations for structural integration within the theological institution calling for God's love , God's Reflections Ronald Ian Phillips, Ernest Schmidt, David Grotzke, Seth Grotzke, 2022-04-07 Using a unique and ground breaking approach that combines religion with American history these four authors masterfully present a thoroughly researched and captivating account of fifty two inspirational stories of America s exceptionalism intricately woven with God s truths Each story connects the life giving honesty of the American people with a life shaping application from the gospel Individuals interested in the history of the United States or Christianity and looking for an overarching account of what unites us as Americans and believers will be enthralled by these inspiring stories of struggles and triumphs We are not the light just the reflection if we stand close enough to the Source The further we move away from God s will for our lives the more we stumble in the dark But as believers we know there is an all powerful force that will lift us up and help us to walk in the light The goal of God s Reflections Biblical Insight from America s Story is to draw Christians closer to the light source so they can radiate brighter in their service to God and their country and be part of the greatest rescue mission of all making disciples for Jesus Christ God's Unconditional Love Wilkie Au, Noreen Cannon Au, 2016 God s Unconditional Love shows how we meet God s love in our places of shame and darkness and how distorted images of God such as the judging God the indifferent God the demanding God keep us from approaching the God revealed by Jesus Engaging Life's Deepest Questions: Teacher's Guide Dr. Octavian Caius Obeada, 2025-06-26 Teacher s Guide Overview The Teacher s Guide for Engaging Life s Deepest Questions is a thoughtfully designed companion manual aimed at equipping educators to teach apologetics with clarity compassion and spiritual depth Its purpose is to empower instructors not only to deliver theological and philosophical content but to form students in discernment empathy and Christian conviction This guide provides Clear instructional support through chapter objectives key concepts and thematic outlines Engaging classroom tools including thought provoking discussion questions creative exercises formative and summative assessments Practical teaching strategies for navigating sensitive cultural issues with pastoral wisdom and theological integrity Mission as God's Spiral of Renewal Ross, Kenneth R., 2019-02-06 In this remarkable volume covering diverse subjects in a span of three decades

God's Wider Presence Robert K. Johnston,2014-10-14 What are we to make of those occasional yet illuminating experiences of God's presence that occur outside both church and Scripture We may encounter God's revelatory presence as we experience a beautiful sunset the birth of a child or a work of art music or literature While theologians have tended to describe such experiences abstractly as mere traces or echoes those involved often recognize such moments of transcendence as transformative Here senior theologian Robert Johnston explores how Christians should think theologically about God's wider revelatory presence that is mediated outside the church through creation conscience and culture The book offers a robust constructive biblical theology of general revelation rooting its insights in the broader Trinitarian work of the Spirit Drawing in part from the author's theological engagement with film and the arts the book helps Christians understand personal moments of experiencing God's transcendence and accounts for revelatory experiences of those outside the believing community It also shows how God's revelatory presence can impact our interaction with nonbelievers and those of other faiths

Calling for God's Love in Time, Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections.

VOLUME ONE: Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations. However, for friendship to advance, there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions. Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues, seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions. It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations, in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews, his closest personal friend.

Contributors: Balwant Singh Dhillon, Timothy J. Gianotti, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Maria Reis Habito, Ruben L. F. Habito, Ryan McAnnally, Linz Stephen, Butler Murray, Eleanor Nesbitt, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sender, Johann M. Vento, and Miroslav Volf.

VOLUME TWO: This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even present-day relations. Its operative notion is the healing of memory, developed by John Paul II. Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes. Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross-religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present-day relations. At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope. If memory informs our past, hope sets the horizon for our future. How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future? And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good? Between memory and hope, this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations.

Contributors: Rahuldeep Singh Gill, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Maria Reis Habito, Flora A. Keshgegian, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sender, Muhammad Suheyl Umar, and Michael von Brück.

VOLUME THREE: The essays collected here, prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy, explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom, learning, teachings, messages for good living. How should religions go about sharing their wisdom? These chapters, representing six faith traditions—Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Sikh, and Buddhist—explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions, why, and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared

Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so

ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today's world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions

VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra Working Blessedly Forever, Volume 1 R.
