The Biodiversity of MacRitchie

More than just 'some trees', the sheer diversity of habitats in the MacRitchie Forest is one of the reasons why so many plants and animals live there. Here are some of the coolest.

Forest Walking Catfish

One of the many native freshwater fish species in Singapore, this fish has the bizarre ability to walk on land!

Blue-eared Kingfisher

A true jewel of the forest, the Blue-eared Kingfisher is a shy and critically endangered bird that lives near freshwater streams.

Twin-Barred Tree Snake

From walking fish to flying snakes! The Twin-barred Tree Snake can glide between forest trees by flattening out its body into an aerofoil!

Banded Leaf Monkey

Enigmatic and reclusive, the Banded Leaf Monkey lives deep in our forests and is highly endangered, with only 40-60 left in the wild.

Bold Ventures S. Raizen, E.D. Britton, 1996-12-31 This book presents comprehensive results from case studies of five innovations in science education that have much to offer toward understanding current reforms in this field Each chapter tells the story of a case in rich detail with extensive documentation and in the voices of many of the participants the innovators the teachers the students Similarly Volume 3 of Bold Ventures presents the results from case studies of five innovations in mathematics education Volume 1 provides a cross case analysis of all eight innovations Many US readers certainly will be very familiar with the name of at least one if not all of the science innovations discussed in this volume for example Project 2061 and probably with their general substance Much of the education community's familiarity with these arises from the project's own dissemination efforts The research reported in this volume however is one of the few detailed studies of these innovations undertaken by researchers outside the project themselves Each of the five studies was a large scale effort involving teams of researchers over three years These teams analyzed many documents attended numerous critical project meetings visited multiple sites conducted dozens of individual interviews The team leaders Atkin Huberman Rowe having spent much time with science education over long careers looked at these innovations through many lenses It was a daunting task for each team to sift through the mountains of detail in order to bring the most compelling themes to the surface

Leading the Sustainable Organization Peter McAteer, 2025-08-05 Never before have we been presented with the prospect of redesigning business at scale to create a more sustainable future for our planet and the people who inhabit it As we pass the midpoint of the Sustainable Development Goals 2015 2030 the world has changed There is not only more progress and policy but also more disagreement on the way forward The bottom line is that the shared goals developed in 2015 will not be met global warming will likely exceed targets and the collective challenge will be left to a new generation The book is organized as a series of business challenges and key questions that enable a transition from making legacy companies more carbon and waste efficient to operating in fundamentally new ways The vast majority of the new infrastructure the world will need by 2050 still needs to be built Those challenges will not be solved by legacy companies working to protect their market position in the face of a changing world The book offers a chapter by chapter guide to enable new leaders to turn challenges into opportunities
