institutions and citizenship Africa's Pulse, No. 19, April 2019 Cesar Calderon, Gerard Kambou, Vijdan Korman, Megumi Kubota, Catalina Cantu Canales, 2019-04-08 Economic growth in Sub Saharan Africa is estimated to have decelerated from 2.5 percent in 2017 to 2.3 percent in 2018 below the rate of growth of population for a fourth consecutive year. Regional growth in 2018 is below the pace projected in 2018. October issue of Africa's Pulse 0.4 percentage points lower. This slowdown was more pronounced in the first half of 2018 and it reflected weaker exports among the region's large oil exporters Nigeria and Angola due to dwindling oil production amid higher but volatile international prices for crude petroleum. A deeper contraction in Sudanese economic activity and a broad based growth slowdown among non resource intensive countries also played a role. Sub Saharan African countries with fragile context have made considerable efforts to find a way out of fragility. Regional and sub regional economic organizations are promoting economic cooperation and addressing security and peace challenges that go beyond national borders. The special topic of this issue of Africa's Pulse argues that the digital economy can unlock new pathways for inclusive growth, innovation, job creation, service delivery and poverty reduction in Africa. The continent has made great strides in mobile connectivity however it still lags the rest of the world in access to broadband. Only 27 percent of the population in the continent have access to internet, few citizens have digital IDs, businesses are slowly adopting digital technologies and only few governments are investing strategically in developing digital infrastructure, services, skills and entrepreneurship.

Conflict and Development Andrew J. Williams, Alasdair Gordon-Gibson, 2024-09-26 Fully revised and updated in its third edition, this timely book brings together the study of conflict and war and the problems surrounding the economic development of developing societies that are most prone to experiencing problems in moving on after war. The book does so by reflecting on the issues surrounding war as it unfolds and after it has in principle ended within the context of the history, present day problems and future prospects. The book aims to highlight the possibilities, successes and failures of past and present policies that bring development to countries and peoples that want to be more involved in deciding their own futures after conflict and war and often find themselves subject to what can be seen as arbitrary and even alien ways of thinking and acting by institutions in which they theoretically have membership and agency but often do not in practice. The case studies have been fully updated to reflect changes and developments since the second edition of this text and there are questions at the end of each chapter to promote reflection. This new edition presents a deeper dive into the history of conflict and the emergence of new theories and policy guidance about present and future options in the fields of conflict and development. Accessible and engaging, this textbook is a pivotal resource for a nexus of subjects related to the often separated fields of conflict and development studies as well as practitioners in this area.
