LABELING

Cartoonists often label objects or people to make it clear exactly what they stand for.

Watch out for the different labels that appear in a cartoon, and ask yourself why the cartoonist chose to label that particular person or object. Does the label make the meaning of the object more clear?

Kay Gandy, 2021-06-19 If you are searching for ideas to teach social studies in fun and meaningful ways 50 Ways to Teach Social Studies is a book that provides a plethora of ideas of practical lessons connected to real world topics that will save the busy teacher time and effort The activities in this book are housed under themes and include content connections civics history geography economics guiding questions and literacy connections From community primary sources and music to food visual media and experiential learning this book will inspire you to make connections in your own environment to expand the teaching of social studies Canadian Governments and Elections Gr. 5-8 Kris Graupe, 1999-01-01 Our unit takes the mundane and makes it marvellous Students learn more about government in Canada than the average parent does in a lifetime An information based section focuses on important concepts pertaining to government in Canada and includes related assignments that build a foundation for student knowledge This is followed by optional lessons that add flexibility to the unit Finally our unit is completed with a trio of major projects Election Campaign Manager Test For Parents and Prime Minister Report With our unit teachers and students are guaranteed to find a chicken in every pot This Canada lesson provides a teacher and student section with a variety of reading passages activities crossword word search and answer key to create a well rounded lesson plan Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st Centuries Vol. 3 Samuel Totten, Jon Pedersen, 2014-01-01 EDUCATING ABOUT SOCIAL ISSUES IN THE 20th and 21st Centuries A Critical Annotated Bibliography Volume 3 is the third volume in a series that addresses an eclectic host of issues germane to teaching and learning about social issues at the secondary level of schooling ranging over roughly a one hundred year period between 1915 and 2013 Volume 3 specifically addresses how an examination of social issues can be incorporated into the extant curriculum Experts in various areas each contribute a chapter in the book Each chapter is comprised of a critical essay and an annotated bibliography of key works germane to the specific focus of the chapter Teaching New Literacies in Grades 4-6 Barbara Moss, Diane Lapp, 2009-11-24 Upper elementary students encounter a sometimes dizzying array of traditional and nontraditional texts both in and outside of the classroom This practical handbook helps teachers in grades 4-6 harness the instructional potential of fiction poetry and plays informational texts graphic novels digital storytelling Web based and multimodal texts hip hop advertisements math problems and many other types of texts Twenty four complete lessons promote critical literacy skills such as comprehending analyzing and synthesizing information and using writing to communicate new ideas and pose questions Snapshots of diverse classrooms are accompanied by clear explanations of the research base for instruction in each genre Ready to use reproducibles are included The Visual Turn and the Transformation of the Textbook James A. LaSpina, 2014-04-04 Is the emerging digital multimedia culture of today transforming the textbook or forever displacing it As new media of transmission enter the classroom the traditional textbook is now caught up in a dialogue reshaping the textual boundaries of the book and with it the traditional modes of cognition and learning which are bound more to language than to visual form Most of the important work in the past two decades in the field of curriculum has focused on the culture of the textbook A rich literature has evolved around textbooks as the traditional object of instructional activity This volume is an important contribution to this literature which focuses on the actual making of a textbook This design process serves as a metaphor that suggests new paradigms of learning and instruction in which text content is but one component in a multidimensional information space The Visual Turn is an exploration along the border of this new learning space transforming the traditional center of instruction in the classroom

Citizenship Education for Elementary Grades Mary A. Hepburn, Edwin L. Jackson, 1985 Race Lessons Prentice T. Chandler, Todd S. Hawley, 2017-05-01 We hold that the mission of social studies is not attainable without attention to the ways in which race and racism play out in society past present and future In a follow up to the book Doing Race in Social Studies 2015 this new volume addresses practical considerations of teaching about race within the context of history geography government economics and the behavioral sciences Race Lessons Using Inquiry to Teach About Race in Social Studies addresses the space between the theoretical and the practical and provides teachers and teacher educators with concrete lesson ideas for how to engage learners with social studies content and race Oftentimes social studies teachers do not teach about race because of several factors teacher fear personal notions of colorblindness and attachment to multicultural narratives that stress assimilation This volume will begin to help teachers and teacher educators start the conversation around realistic and practical race pedagogy The chapters included in this volume are written by prominent social studies scholars and classroom teachers This work is unique in that it represents an attempt to use Critical Race Theory and inquiry pedagogy Inquiry Design Model to teach about race in the social science disciplines Elections Christi E.
