Martin, Jeppe Sinding Jensen, Jesper Sørensen, 2018-10-08 Evolution Cognition and the History of Religion A New Synthesis comprises 41 chapters that push for a new way of conducting the study of religion thereby transforming the discipline into a genuine science of religion The recent resurgence of evolutionary approaches on culture and the increasing acknowledgement in the natural and social sciences of culture s and religion s evolutionary importance calls for a novel epistemological and theoretical framework for studying these two areas The chapters explore how a new scholarly synthesis founded on the triadic space constituted by evolution cognition cultural and ecological environment may develop Different perspectives and themes relating to this overarching topic are taken up with a main focus on either evolution cognition and or the history of religion Twists, Tilings, and Tessellations Robert J.

Catharine Wilson takes readers into families daily lives the intricacies of their labour exchange and their workways feasts and hospitality Through the prism of the bee and a close reading of the diaries she uncovers the subtle social politics of mutual dependency the expectations neighbours had of each other and their ways of managing conflict and crisis This book adds to the literature on cooperative work that focuses on evaluating its economic efficiency and complicates histories of capitalism that place communal values at odds with market orientation Beautifully written engaging and richly detailed and illustrated Being Neighbours reveals the visceral textures of rural life
