The Fifth Commandment Stuart Haussler,2004-11 Stuart I Haussler a seventy five year old brings to his novels usually Western and Military knowledge acquired as a Rancher Doctor Teacher and Naval Marine Officer This novel The Fifth Commandment is an intentional fabrication of the mind based on imagination experience and a profound concern about those who would have us turn away from the preeminence of the Ten Commandments The simplicity of the Commandments is their greatest testimony to how the Judeo Christian God envisions how we should ethically conduct ourselves and fulfill our lives Can our society turn away from this testimony and prevail as a republic The Fifth Commandment instructs Honor thy father and mother as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee that thy days may be prolonged and that it may go well with thee in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee Are there no stipulations qualifications and s if s or but s related to Judeo Christian people following this Commandment Is it to be as with the other Commandments followed to the letter Certainly in this day and age of enlightenment there must be a means to qualify and stipulate whether this honor is warranted but if there is not then what price might a child pay for balancing this Commandment to his or her needs The Fifth Commandment tells a story of the consequences of failing to accept this Commandment as handed down by God and the impact of those consequences on society Once again the author creates the threads of intrigue murder and deceit into the whole cloth of today s truths realities and conflicts conjured up by forces that would undermine the true understanding of life as set forth in the Ten Commandments by God Visit and talk to me www.stuarthaussler.com At Home with Pornography Jane Juffer,1998-07-01 Twenty five years after the start of the feminist sex wars pornography remains a flashpoint issue with feminists locked in a familiar argument Are women victims or agents In At Home with Pornography Jane Juffer exposes the fruitlessness of this debate and suggests that it has prevented us from realizing women's changing relationship to erotica and porn. Over the course of these same twenty-five years there has been a proliferation of sexually explicit materials geared toward women made available in increasingly mainstream venues. In asking what is the relationship of women to pornography, Juffer maintains that we need to stop obsessing over pornography's transgressive aspects and start focusing on the place of porn and erotica in women's everyday lives. Where she asks do women routinely find it for how much and how is it circulated and consumed within the home. How is this circulation and consumption shaped by the different marketing categories that attempt to distinguish erotica from porn such as women's literary erotica and sexual self-help videos for couples. At Home with Pornography responds to these questions by viewing women's erotica within the context of governmental regulation that attempts to counterpose a dangerous pornography with the sanctity of the home. Juffer explores how women's consumption of erotica and porn for their own pleasure can be empowering while still acting to reinforce conservative ideals. She shows how for instance the Victoria's Secret catalog is able to function as a kind of pornography whose circulation is facilitated both by its reliance on Victorian themes of secrecy and privacy and on its appeals to the selfish pleasures of modern career women. In her pursuit to understand what women like and how they get it, Juffer delves into adult cable channels, erotic literary anthologies, sex therapy guides, cyberporn, masturbation and sex toys, showing the varying degrees to which these materials have been domesticated for home consumption. Representing the next generation of scholarship on pornography, At Home with Pornography will transform our understanding of women's everyday sexuality.
