Composers in the Movies John C. Tibbetts, 2008-10-01 Amadeus Yankee Doodle Dandy Swanee River Rhapsody in Blue Even before movies had sound filmmakers dramatized the lives of composers. Movie biographies or biopics have depicted composers as diverse as Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, George M. Cohan, Stephen Foster, and George Gershwin. In this enticing book the first devoted entirely to such films, John C. Tibbetts surveys different styles and periods from the Hollywood of the 1920s and 1930s to the international cinema of today, exploring the role that film biographies play in our understanding of history and culture. Tibbetts delves into such questions as: How historically accurate are composer biopics? How and why have inaccuracies and distortions been perpetrated? What strategies have been used to represent visually the creative process? The book examines the films in several contexts and considers their role in commodifying and popularizing music. Extensive archival research, dozens of illustrations, and numerous interviews make this an appealing book for film and music enthusiasts at all levels. Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series Library of Congress. Granados Carol A. Hess, 1991-12-11 Enrique Granados 1867-1916 was one of the first modern Spanish composers to achieve international recognition. During a 1916 visit to the United States his opera Goyescas was premiered by the Metropolitan Opera and his symphonic poem Dante by the Chicago Symphony. Granados was also especially admired in Paris where he knew Saint-Saëns, Debussy, and Faure. He had composed a remarkable body of work and was also at the height of his career as a concert pianist at his untimely death while a passenger on a torpedoed British ship. The biographical study, the first in English, draws on primary sources in English, Spanish, French, Catalan, and other languages. This material is carefully documented in the extensive annotated bibliography along with contemporaneous and recent analytical studies and other sources. Granados's oeuvre presents cataloging problems due to his habit of reworking pieces long delayed publication and arbitrary opus numbers In the Works and Performances section however every effort has been made to offer publication dates manuscript locations and information on premieres Representative arrangements of his works by other composers are also given An appendix classifies the works by scoring A selective discography is also provided and all parts of the volume are fully cross referenced and indexed Granados is placed in the context of the international artistic scene at the turn of the century and a chronology notes related events Modern music and musicians Ignace Jan Paderewski,1918 Musical Standard ,1929
