Grace lives a fairly normal life with her mother and sister in a peaceful suburban village in the Philippines Working as a nurse at the local hospital and learning martial arts in her spare time she carries on with a routine where everything is as good as can be expected But a sudden grief takes over when her family is compelled to immigrate to the United States on a long standing petition they all thought would never come In an instant Graces childhood fear of death and separation resurface as she considers the possibility that she might never see her family again an anxiety which is aggravated by her mothers poor health and the imminent revelation of a dark secret involving her father This temporary separation however finds comfort in the promise of eternal life through Jesus Christ whom she learns about from a group of unlikely friends As human reality dawns can Grace handle the blow of a cold hard truth that will inevitably shake the very foundations of her newfound Christian faith The Pope's Children David McWilliams,2011-01-11 Named for the ironic coincidence of the Irish baby boom of the 1970s which peaked nine months to the day after Pope John Paul II s historic visit to Dublin The Pope s Children is both a celebration and biting funny portrait of the first generation of the Celtic Tiger the beneficiaries of the economic miracle that propelled Ireland from centuries of deprivation into a nation that now enjoys one of the highest living standards in the world A Story of Hope and Happiness Rosemary Bidwell,2023-03-03 This is a story of triumph over adversity an absorbing thought provoking sometimes amusing but often heart rending account of British businesswoman Rosemary Bidwell s struggles to set up and run an orphanage in Sierra Leone West Africa for orphaned street children youngsters whose parents had been savagely killed in a truly awful civil war Read how against seemingly insurmountable odds Rosemary founded the Cotton Tree Children s Trust charity in 2006 and set about raising thousands of pounds through donations sponsorship talks and myriad fund raising events to give 20 African children a second chance in life Through her charity Rosemary provided her charges not only with a roof over their heads regular meals clothing and general welfare and educational support but love and affection Read too how Rosemary had to overcome all manner of obstacles on the way to achieving her goal everything from corruption bribery fraud and interrogation by police for 11 hours without diplomatic representation to being falsely accused of child trafficking and suffering a suspected heart attack and having to be airlifted home Despite the trials and tribulations Rosemary has overcome the many and varied setbacks she encountered over a period of 18 years Today thanks to her dedication perseverance and Christian beliefs the Cotton Tree children can now face the future with confidence and know that they have been given an opportunity to prosper in life that sadly has been denied to so many other Sierra Leone children
