Purpose & Supporting Details	Your writing compares and contrasts ideas clearly. It also includes specific examples to illustrate the comparison. The paper includes only the information relevant to the comparison (no extra stuff).	Your writing compares and contrasts ideas clearly, BUT your supporting information is general (not specific enough). The paper includes only the information relevant to the comparison (no extra stuff).	Your writing compares and contrasts ideas clearly, BUT your supporting information is incomplete (you need more support). The paper may also contain information that is not really relevant to the comparison.	Your writing compares and contrasts ideas clearly, BUT does not include both. There is little to no supporting information or the support is really boring details. Give me more!	Your writing did not focus on comparing and contrast ideas. (I'm confused!)
Organization & Structure	The paper breaks up information to include similarities, differences or point-by-point. You followed a consistent order! Way to go!	The paper breaks up information to include similarities, differences or point-by-point. However, you did not follow a consistent order!	The paper breaks up information to include similarities, differences or point-by-point, BUT some information is in the wrong section. Some details are not in logical or expected order, and this detracts a lot!	Many details in your paper are not in a logical or expected order, it seems around in subject!	The paper has little to no organization.
Grammar & Conventions	You made NO errors in grammar or spelling. Heyo!!	You made 1-2 errors in grammar. Check your proofreading!	You made 3-4 errors in grammar or spelling. Check your proofreading! Hollywood or History? Scott L. Roberts,Charles J. Elfer,2021-01-01 The challenges of teaching history are acute where we consider the world history classroom Generalized world history courses are a part of many if not most K 12 curricular frameworks in the United States While United States history tends to dominate the scholarship and conversation there are an equally wide number of middle level and secondary students and teachers engaged in the study of world history in our public schools And the challenges are real In the first place if we are to mark content coverage as a curricular obstacle in the history classroom generally then we must underscore that concern in the world history classroom and for obvious reasons The curricular terrain to choose from is immense and forever expanding dealing with the development of numerous civilizations over millennia and across a wide geographic expanse In addition to curricular concerns world historical topics are inherently farther away from most students lives not just temporally but often geographically and culturally Thus the rationale for the present text Hollywood or History An Inquiry Based Strategy for Using Film to Teach World History The reviews of the first volume Hollywood or History An Inquiry Based Strategy for Using Film to Teach United States History strategy have been overwhelmingly positive especially as it pertains to the application of the strategy for practitioner Classroom utility and teacher practice have remained our primary objectives in developing the Hollywood or History strategy and we are encouraged by the possibilities of Volume II and the capacity of this most recent text to impact teaching and learning in world history We believe that students connection to film along with teachers ability to use film in an effective manner will help alleviate some of the challenges of teaching world history The book provides 30 secondary lesson plans grades 6 12 that address nine eras in world history
