book Intended as a text for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice      Hollywood or History Scott L. Roberts, Charles J. Elfer, 2018-07-01 Teaching and learning through Hollywood or commercial film productions is anything but a new approach and has been something of a mainstay in the classroom for nearly a century Purposeful and effective instruction through film however is not problem free and there are many challenges that accompany classroom applications of Hollywood motion pictures In response to the problems and possibilities associated with teaching through film we have collaboratively developed a collection of practical classroom ready lesson ideas that might bridge gaps between theory and practice and assist teachers endeavoring to make effective use of film in their classrooms We believe that film can serve as a powerful tool in the social studies classroom and where appropriately utilized foster critical thinking and civic mindedness The College Career and Civic Life C3 framework represents a renewed and formalized emphasis on the perennial social studies goals of deep thinking reading and writing We believe that as teachers endeavor to digest and implement the platform in schools and classrooms across the country the desire for access to structured strategies that lead to more active and rigorous investigation in the social studies classroom will grow increasingly acute Our hope is that this edited book might play a small role in the larger project of supporting practitioners specifically K 12 teachers of United States history by offering a collection of classroom ready tools based on the Hollywood or History strategy and designed to foster historical inquiry through the careful use of historically themed motion pictures The book consists of K 5 and 6 12 lesson plans addressing the following historical eras Adapted from UCLA National Center for History in Schools      Getting at the Core of the Common Core with Social Studies Thomas N. Turner, Jeremiah Clabough, William Cole, 2014-11-01 For social studies teachers reeling from the buffeting of top down educational reforms this volume offers answers to questions about dealing with the Common Core State Standards CCSS Each chapter presents and reviews pertinent standards that relate to the social studies Each chapter also deals with significant topics in the social studies from various social sciences to processes such as inquiry to key skills needed for success in social studies such as analysis and literacy The most important aspect of these chapters though is the array of adaptable activities that is included in each chapter Teachers can find practical approaches to dealing with CCSS across the social studies panorama The multiple authorships of the various chapters mean a variety of perspectives and viewpoints are presented All of the authors have fought in the trenches of K 12 public education Their activities reflect this in a way that will be useful to novice or veteran teachers      Encyclopedia of Education and Human Development Stephen J. Farenga, Daniel Ness, 2015-07-17 This comprehensive and exhaustive reference work on the subject of education from the primary grades through higher education combines educational theory with practice making it a unique contribution to the educational reference market Issues related to human development and learning are examined by individuals whose specializations are in diverse areas including education psychology sociology philosophy law and medicine The book focuses on important themes in education and human development Authors consider each entry from the perspective of its social and political conditions as well as historical underpinnings The book also explores the people whose contributions have played a seminal role in the shaping of educational ideas institutions and organizations and includes entries on these institutions and organizations This work integrates numerous theoretical frameworks with field based applications from many areas in educational research
