Practice for Officer Candidate Tests David Reuben Turner,1974 Bureau Publication ,1912 Juvenile Justice Practical Application Workbook Barry S. McCrary Sr.,2018-03-13 The purpose of this juvenile justice workbook is to explore the current challenges in meeting the social developmental needs for youth in the juvenile justice system This workbook will explore strategies for addressing these challenges at a policy and practice level The attempt to improve social developmental needs requires the promotion of a practical application outlook for juvenile justice students and workers to provide a service to manage behaviors along with learning about the offender in order to manage and address specific needs The purposes of this workbook will be 1 to examine the current juvenile justice practices by which juvenile justice workers provide services and 2 to study core case procedures that juvenile justice workers are using to meet youth offender s needs and 3 to analyze those practices that exist for juvenile justice worker to meet social developmental needs Publications of the Children's Bureau United States. Children's Bureau,1923 Mass Supervision Vincent Schiraldi,2023-09-12 With a foreword by Bruce Western Named one of the Best Books of the Year by NPR Shortlisted 2024 Stephan Russo Book Prize for Social Justice The most comprehensive critique of probation and parole and a provocative and compelling argument for abolishing both from the former Probation Commissioner of New York City Imagine if probation didn t exist And I came to you with 80 million and 30 000 people the courts considered troubled and troubling And you could do anything you wanted with that money to make New York City safer and help people turn their lives around Would you go out and hire a thousand civil service protected bureaucrats to supervise people as they piss in a cup once a week and to tell them to go forth and sin no more Vincent Schiraldi s Job Interview with NYC Mayor Mike Bloomberg We ve heard a lot in recent years about the nearly 2 1 million people incarcerated in American prisons and jails But what about the approximately 4 million more who are on probation and parole monitored by the state at great expense and at risk of being sent to prison at the whim of a probation or parole officer for the least imaginable infraction Vincent Schiraldi was New York City probation commissioner under Mayor Bloomberg supervising a system charged with monitoring 30 000 people on a daily basis In Mass Supervision he combines firsthand experience with deep research on the inadequately explored practices of probation and parole to illustrate how these forms of state supervision have strayed from their original goal of providing constructive and rehabilitative alternatives to prison They have become instead Schiraldi argues a recidivism trap for people trying to lead productive lives in the wake of a criminal conviction Schiraldi offers the first full and up to date account of these two key aspects of our criminal justice system showing that these practices increase incarceration have little impact on crime rates and needlessly disrupt countless lives Ultimately he argues that they should be dramatically downsized or even abolished completely Annual Report of the New York State Probation Commission New York (State).
