R. Weir, J. Derek Scasta, 2022-02 Global Application of Prescribed Fire provides a first hand perspective of the various methods and ways people around the world view and use prescribed fire. It covers the logistics constraints and social dynamics surrounding the intentional use and application of fire by humans and demonstrates how, why, when and where prescribed fire is used in different regions. Written by international experts, the book has four key objectives: explore new techniques, ideas and thoughts on how to apply prescribed fire from a global perspective; provide regional case studies covering issues that may constrain or enhance prescribed fire projects; stimulate cross cultural conversations about how fires function in ecosystems and relate prescribed fire to wildfire regimes with implications for protecting life and property as well as sustaining local fire cultures and unique fire dependent flora and fauna. Global Application of Prescribed Fire enhances our understanding and knowledge about the application of prescribed fire. This comprehensive book will provide fire practitioners, researchers, agencies and policymakers with key ecological and managerial insight of how prescribed fires are conducted around the globe.

Afro-Eurasia: Assessing Sustainability Ray C. Anderson, Louis Kotz, Stephen Morse, 2012-10-31
Afro Eurasia: Assessing Sustainability focuses on the geographic area where humans originated and first began to make use of the natural world. Earth's largest landmass stretching from Portugal in the west across the steppes of Russia and south across Africa to the Cape of Good Hope. By examining the history of human expansion as well as 21st century pressures to address ecosystem damage across the region, international scholars and regional experts weave sustainability into core curricular subjects. The interdisciplinary coverage includes national and regional environmental histories as well as business and commerce, migration, educational institutions, law and government and the lifestyles of diverse populations.

Cape Town To Kilimanjaro Eric George De Jong, 2020-09-09
It is never too late to do something crazy, wonderful. Your mid life crisis doesn't have to be boring. Eric De Jong, aged 60, took up mountain biking. The next thing he was making pinky promises with a fellow rider to ride from Cape Town to the summit of Mount Kilimanjaro. Detouring off highways in search of roads less traveled, Cape Town to Kilimanjaro is about having fun, doing good and doing epic. Join Eric on his jaw dropping, foot cramping adventures through Africa and he'll make you laugh, cry and will hopefully inspire.

THE END OF THE GLOBAL? Liam Bemrose, Millie Bushell, Livia Cuciurean, Tessa Caplen Browne, Harry Rawson, Gabriele Piazza, Ethel Tambudzai, Tenzin Tinkol Tashi and Victoria Vall, 2018-04-15
The End of the Global features a collection of papers presented at the first DEN International Student Conference in 2017. This publication is one of many projects that the Democratic Education Network (DEN) has been responsible for since its launch in 2016 within the department of Politics and International Relations at the University of Westminster. In addition to supporting various other initiatives, DEN encourages and inspires students to research, get involved in student led workshops and publish magazines and journals. It hopes to increase our knowledge about how to open up deliberative and empowering spaces for students and how to maximise the impact of their projects on other students experience This book is a result of eclectic ideas and hard work put in by many students and covers the views of student authors on various economic political and social crises that shape our world today We hope that we have taken an important step in achieving the aims of DEN through encouraging students to believe in themselves and push the boundaries of imagination and possibility Education should not only be about knowledge gathering skills enhancement and degree acquisition but be a transformative life experience If students go away with more confidence more humility and better equipped to deal with the various challenges and opportunities that the world around them offers we would have succeeded as educationists Prof Dibyesh Anand Head of the Department of Politics and International Relations University of Westminster This book is produced by some of the students active in the Democratic Education Network It is essentially a collective work of the former and present students in the department to learn and explore their own world independently Dr Farhang Morady Academic Coordinator of DEN University of Westminster

AIDS in the World II Global AIDS Policy Coalition, 1996 AIDS in the World Vol 1 published in 1992 was the first full analysis of mankind's global confrontation with this disease The AIDS scene however has been changing so rapidly that the need for a second volume was felt much earlier than expected In AIDS in the World II the authors extend the international comparisons from 38 countries to the entire world and show that the AIDS pandemic has become increasingly fragmented within the world population They present data that takes the discussion beyond the current understanding of the vulnerability of nations and communities to the worldwide spread of HIV engaging in a detailed exploration of the social strategies that have enabled individuals to avoid infection Mann and Tarantola chart a course into the future based on an incisive investigation of the global pandemic and response the crucial lessons learned from the first decade and their expert understanding of the scientific and social dimensions of the HIV challenge The authors explain how the variety of reactions to the pandemic has contributed to a more advanced awareness of our vulnerability to HIV AIDS and offer a blueprint for an expanded global prevention effort Intended to serve the information needs of all professionals involved in AIDS research and care this volume's accessibility and clarity of writing make it highly suitable for the general reader as well
