social and political observers would have difficulty imagining a society where evaluation is not a fixture of daily life from individual programs to local authorities to parliamentary committees While university researchers grant makers and public servants may think there are too many types of evaluation rankings and reviews evaluation is nonetheless viewed positively by the public It is perceived as a tool for improvement and evaluators are seen as dedicated to using their knowledge for the benefit of society The book examines the degree to which evaluators seek power for their own interests This perspective is based on a simple assumption If you are in possession of an asset that can give you power why not use it for your own interests Can we really trust evaluation to be a force for the good To what degree can we talk about self interest in evaluation and is this self interest something that contradicts other interests such as the benefit of society Such questions and others are addressed in this brilliant innovative international collection of pioneering contributions

Financial Accountability in Nepal World Bank,2003 Nepal has suffered from the lack of proper management of public expenditures stagnant real revenues large and inefficient parastatals and a weak financial sector Fiduciary risk remains high His Majesty s Government of Nepal has accorded high priority to the assurance of good accountability and transparency in public sector financial management Reforms are now critical and should be approached in an integrated way covering planning budgeting accounting internal control internal audit external audit and oversight Action in only one area of financial management will not result in the same degree of benefits The capacity building recommended in this report s Development Action Plan is designed to introduce international accounting and auditing standards in both the public and the private sectors and to close the gap between precept and practice The Government has a firm commitment to implement these time bound actions R sum de l diteur
