Humanism in Ruins Aslı Iğsız, 2018-09-18 The 1923 Greek Turkish population exchange forcibly relocated one and a half million people Muslims in Greece were resettled in Turkey and Greek Orthodox Christians in Turkey were moved to Greece This landmark event set a legal precedent for population management on the basis of religious or ethnic difference Similar segregative policies such as creating walls partitions and apartheids have followed in its wake Strikingly the exchange was purportedly enacted as a means to achieve peace Humanism in Ruins maps the links between liberal discourses on peace and the legacies of this forced migration Aslı Iğsız weaves together past and present making visible the effects in Turkey across the ensuing century of the 1923 exchange Liberal humanism has responded to segregative policies by calling for coexistence and the acceptance of cultural diversity Yet as Iğsız makes clear liberal humanism itself with its ahistorical emphasis on a shared humanity fails to confront an underlying racialized logic This far reaching and multilayered cultural history investigates what it means to be human historically socially and politically It delivers an urgent message about the politics of difference at a time when the reincarnation of fascism in different parts of the world invites citizens to participate in perpetuating a racialized and unequal world

The Living Age, 1908 Haunting Bollywood Meheli Sen, 2017-03-01 Haunting Bollywood is a pioneering interdisciplinary inquiry into the supernatural in Hindi cinema that draws from literary criticism postcolonial studies queer theory history and cultural studies Hindi commercial cinema has been invested in the supernatural since its earliest days but only a small segment of these films have been adequately explored in scholarly work this book addresses this gap by focusing on some of Hindi cinema's least explored genres From Gothic ghost films of the 1950s to snake films of the 1970s and 1980s to today's globally influenced zombie and vampire films Meheli Sen delves into what the supernatural is and the varied modalities through which it raises questions of film form history modernity and gender in South Asian public cultures Arguing that the supernatural is dispersed among multiple genres and constantly in conversation with global cinematic forms she demonstrates that it is an especially malleable impulse that routinely pushes Hindi film into new formal and stylistic territories Sen also argues that gender is a particularly accommodating stage on which the supernatural rehearses its most basic compulsions thus the interface between gender and genre provides an exceptionally productive lens into Hindi cinema's negotiation of the modern and the global Haunting Bollywood reveals that the supernatural's unruly energies continually resist containment even as they partake of and sometimes subvert Hindi cinema's most enduring pleasures from songs and stars to myth and melodrama Unity ,1893
