STUDENT: Jamie VAN Mijl (MATHS)	DATE: OCT 25, 2012
SCHOOL: Rapid City School	GRADE/SUBJECT: 3/4 ELA
COOPERATING TEACHER(S): Jody Hryniak

Describe the student teacher's performance and make recommendations. The following may be noted: learners, outcomes, activating strategies, acquiring strategies, applying strategies, assessment strategies, and management strategies.

17- Or 3/4 students

3.2.5 - making sense of info.

4.1.3 - organize ideas

5.2.2 - work in groups.

Jamie began by doing the "listening to reading"; she read a short story aloud: My Bear. The students then picked one of four activities and rotated to a different activity for the next 15 minutes:

During this time, Jamie worked with four students on guided reading while an aide went from group to group ensuring all were on task. When each group's guided reading was done, they worked on a variety of worksheets depending on their reading level (Groups A to D). These students have been pre-taught by the C.T. to ensure the appropriate starting point.

On the Smart Board, there is a large print count-down clock (from 5 min to 0). The computer automatically plays an upbeat jingle as students move independently to their next activity or go to Jamie for guided reading. A different student is chosen each day to activate the 15 min. timer for each activity. The students have a Daily 5 Ticket which lasts all week - they check off what they have done and can easily see what needs to be done in the next 15 minute block.

Jamie explained clearly the expectations for this class. She showed much poise and confidence and was definitely in charge of the class. The students respected her and did exactly as she outlined. Jamie's class outline was thorough and followed to a T!

Cool class!

Between Teaching and Caring in the Preschool John C. Pruitt, 2020-07-06 In Between Teaching and Caring in the Preschool John C Pruitt argues that preschool teaching is more than a set of roles and duties tied to institutional expectations Drawing on two years of ethnographic fieldwork twenty three interviews and countless conversations with preschool teachers and analysis of preschool documents Pruitt opens the black box of the preschool to show the complexity of the preschool teacher identity as it unfolds in everyday practices of teaching and caring His analysis of preschool teachers talk and interaction addresses pertinent sociological and early childhood education themes including classroom management social control emotions and identity construction He demonstrates there is more going on in the preschool than teaching young children and caring for them Through practices of classroom management and teaching language preschool teachers socialize children into education contexts and exert social control in and through teaching practices By managing emotions preschool teachers also manage impressions of themselves and the preschool He also shows how preschool teachers use resources like Montessori pedagogy and their lived experience to construct authenticity Pruitt concludes that institutions such as ECE shape identities within and away from the institution

Grotewell,Yanus R. Burton,2008 This book focuses on early childhood education which spans the human life from birth to age 8 Infants and toddlers experience life more holistically than any other age group Social emotional cognitive language and physical lessons are not learned separately by very young children Adults who are most helpful to young children interact in ways that understand that the child is learning from the whole experience not just that part of the experience to which the adult gives attention Although early childhood education does not have to occur in the absence of the parent or primary caregiver this term is sometimes used to denote education by someone other than these the parent or primary caregiver Both research in the field and early childhood educators view the parents as an integral part of the early childhood education process Early childhood education takes many forms depending on the theoretical and educational beliefs of the educator or parent Other terms that is often used interchangeably with early childhood education are early childhood learning early care and early education Much of the first two years of life are spent in the creation of a child s first sense of self or the building of a first identity Because this is a crucial part of children s makeup how they first see themselves how they think they should function how they expect others to function in relation to them early care must ensure that in addition to carefully selected and trained caregivers links with family home culture and home language are a central part of program policy If care becomes a substitute for rather than a support of family children may develop a less than positive sense of who they are and where they come from because of their child care experience Early Childhood Education and the Student Empowerment Program Mario C.
