Resources in Education ,1998      Research in Education ,1972      The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1968      Reading in History Bonnie Gunzenhauser,2015-10-06 A collection of essays that offer a methodological framework for the history of reading Focusing on a specific historical moment it gathers statistics about such issues as literacy rates library subscriptions publication and sales figures and print runs to answer questions about what was being read and by whom in a particular place and time      Real Estate Record and Builders' Guide ,1888      Programming for Design Edith Cherry,1998-11-10 Quickly master architectural programming concepts skills and techniques In the essential discipline of architectural programming the ideas of philosophy sociology anthropology psychology and history find their focus in the realities of site conditions budgets and functionality Author Edith Cherry vividly demonstrates in this inspiring tutorial that the programming process not only helps architects avoid the endless design revisions occurring in most projects but that it is also the key to designing for optimal form and function Programming for Design lets you rapidly acquire the knowledge and skills needed to successfully program a moderate size space Rather than simply describe basic principles and practices this straightforward guide helps you master architectural programming by actually doing it Professor Cherry identifies the central issues involved and describes the skills needed to work with clients to identify problems to be solved by a design effort Emphasizing designing for people she offers proven strategies and techniques for goal setting information gathering and analysis concept development program synthesis and communicating with clients The book is also devoted to practical applications The author walks you step by step through a project of your own choosing providing numerous examples and four case studies within each step that vividly illustrate how to effectively gather process and communicate information Programming for Design features more than 200 supporting illustrations diagrams and sidebars appearing throughout the text reproducing pithy sayings by such far flung figures as Plato and Yogi Berra Einstein and Lao Tzu that help relate the programming process to other disciplines      Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1971      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997      Introducing Multidisciplinary Micro-credentialing Chamila Subasinghe,Beena Giridharan,2023-11-10 Introducing Multidisciplinary Micro credentialing establishes a HE industry framework to augment a re skilling and upskilling process where courses could generate adaptable multidisciplinary links and intersections toward self sufficiency      Impossible Recovery Hannah Lucas,2025-01-14 The medieval mystic Julian of Norwich 1342 after 1416 is the first known woman to author a book in the English language recognized today for her strikingly optimistic claim that all shall be well Her visionary text Revelations of Divine Love is the product of many years of contemplation written and revised after a life changing event of near fatal illness and divine revelation Hannah Lucas explores the entanglement of illness and revelation in Julian s writings illuminating the unexpected commonalities between the medical and the mystical and their significance for philosophies of health Framed by an original application of post Heideggerian philosophy Impossible

Recovery offers a vivid new interpretation of the medieval mystic as crafting a proto phenomenological theology of well being Lucas's careful readings pay close attention to Julian's mystical language and poetics revealing the surprising resonances of her writings with modern and postmodern thought Refracted through Julian's Revelations this book advances a powerful existential query about the possibilities of recovery of well being and of medieval history

Law, Women Judges and the Gender Order Kasey McLoughlin,2021-11-18 This book seeks to understand how women judges are situated as legal knowers on the High Court of Australia by asking whether a near equal gender balance on the High Court has disrupted the Court's historically masculinist gender regime This book examines how the High Court's gender regime operates once there is more than one woman on the bench It explores the following questions How have the Court's gender relations accommodated the presence women on the bench How have the women themselves accommodated those pre existing gender relations How might legal judgments and reasoning change as a result of changing gender dynamics on the bench To develop answers to these and other questions the book pursues a methodology that conceptualises the High Court as an institution with a particular gender regime shaped historically by the dominant gender order of the wider society The intersection between the gendered individuals and the gendered institution in which they operate produces and reproduces that institution's gender regime Hence the enquiry is not so much asking have women judges made a difference but rather is asking how should we understand women judges relationship with the law a relationship that is shaped as much by the individual judge as by the institutional context in which they operate Scholars legal practitioners and researchers interested in judicial reasoning gender diversity and the legal profession gender and politics will be interested in this book because it breaks new ground as a case study of a Court's gender regime at a particular time

Divine Marriage from Eden to the End of Days André Villeneuve,2021-10-12 In Divine Marriage from Eden to the End of Days Andre Villeneuve explores the mystery of God's love in the Bible and ancient Jewish tradition Scripture portrays the covenant between God and his people as a divine human marriage spanning through all of human history For the ancient Jewish interpreters God married humanity at the dawn of creation in the Garden of Eden but the union was broken by human sin The Lord restored the relationship when he betrothed Israel at Mount Sinai yet the covenant was wounded again with the transgression of the golden calf The nuptial bond was healed anew commemorated and reenacted through liturgical worship in Israel's tabernacle and temple This worship in God's nuptial chamber in turn anticipated the ultimate fulfillment of the divine human marriage in the messianic age at the end of history The first part of the book explores the marriage through Israel's biblical history in light of ancient Jewish exegesis The second part unveils the marriage in the ancient interpretation of the Song of Songs and in wisdom literature The third part reveals how the same symbolism is taken up in the New Testament and applied to the marriage between Christ and the Church
