After the Fall: Dirges Among Ruins Eric Tinsay Valles,2023-04-29 This collection explores the creative space of poetry as a means to unravel feelings evoked by the violence of war or by everyday traumatic events One may come to terms with uncomfortable including unspeakable feelings by describing them with imagery from nature and one s immediate environment By participating in grieving the self can better face any lingering effects of trauma In this creative space dramatic speakers retell stories and give vent to contradictory feelings through silences and free play Their accounts attest to the dappled beauty of the human condition even if the full nature scope and effects of traumatic memories are always beyond their grasp CMJ New Music Report ,1999-04-26 CMJ New Music Report is the primary source for exclusive charts of non commercial and college radio airplay and independent and trend forward retail sales CMJ s trade publication compiles playlists for college and non commercial stations often a prelude to larger success Defacing the Music Reggie

Legend,2017-08-10 If you re a Christian who loves Hip Hop then this book is for you The original intent of music was to bring glory and honor to the name of God as the Creator of all things Yet like all men born into this earth music has been corrupted by the very thing that mankind was created to subdue sin When Nas rapped that Hip Hop is dead it was personal and it hurt

Yet Hip Hop died long before Nas eulogized it. It died the moment its words were birthed into the world without God at its center. Adding insult to injury, Hip Hop's memorial gets defaced every time lyrics and beats are created without the intent to praise God, produced by artists who are sold out for their own kingdom name and fame instead of the LORD's. But this book isn't meant to be doom and gloom; there's Good News. Like mankind, Hip Hop needs to be reformed. Take a look at the image below. We've all played musical chairs. Every time the music breaks, a chair is removed from the circle, displacing one person as another takes the last coveted spot. In this image, God, the Chairman of Music, has lost His seat in what Psalm 22:3 calls the praises of Israel, a place He was meant to inhabit. There's treble brewing in music when God gets removed. Even so, this book is not about removing godless Hip Hop music altogether; it's about the hope of Hip Hop's restoration. At the end of the day, it's all about God being the foundation of music: the bass, if you will, no trouble.

Music Industry Corruption Bianca Harrington, AI, 2025-02-24. Music Industry Corruption exposes the unethical business practices that plague the music industry from payola scandals to rigged music charts. The book argues that deep-seated corruption, fueled by profit, manipulates public taste and undermines creativity. A key insight is how record labels bribe radio stations to play specific songs regardless of merit, distorting the marketplace. The book begins with a historical overview, tracing the rise of payola to today's digital manipulation tactics. It then dissects the mechanics of payola and chart manipulation, analyzes artist exploitation through unfair contracts, and explores deception in the digital age, such as streaming manipulation. The book provides a data-driven analysis of corruption, offering potential solutions like stricter regulations and increased consumer awareness. By exposing the scope and impact of corruption, this book equips readers with the knowledge to advocate for change, understand their rights, and promote ethical practices.

Song of Songs Paul J. Griffiths, 2011-06. This addition to the well-received Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible offers theological exegesis of the Song of Songs.

Mediascapes of Ruined Geographies in the Global South Diego Granja do Amaral, A. Chukwudumebi Obute, 2023-08-15. This book undertakes an interdisciplinary and cross-cultural interrogation of the Global South through the prisms of media and cultural studies. It closely explores the quotidian re-territorialization and brazen ruination of the material geographies of this vast expanse of the world by forces and proxies of neo-colonialism and global capitalism of resource extraction. We cite the ongoing expulsion of Palestinians from their homelands by occupational forces, the emerging detritus dump across Mexico City and Lagos, the infrastructural precariousness of the favelas of Brazil, the unending resource war in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) and the flagrant operation of the oil industry in the Niger Delta region of Nigeria as examples of this geographic cataclysm. The centripetal forces of neo-colonialism and resource extraction at full flight in the Global South, aided by toxic hegemonic forces, have overtly tossed some of the population to the peripheries of existence and the society at large As such this book additionally explores the resistance of the subalterns from the margins to this socio political malaise and further unmask the knowledge production from these margins of the Global South This project is divided into five 5 parts of three essays each The first part examines the territorial contestation in the Middle East framed and expressed through films and literary lenses The second part examines the environmental burden of modern consumerism and urbanization on metropolis across Mexico Brazil and Nigeria while the third part explores the attritional violence of resource extraction in the DRC Brazil and Nigeria via filmic and journalistic lenses The fourth part offers a swift response from the margins through ethnographic and journalistic interrogation of the subjectivity of the subalterns of Brazilian favelas and street artists The fifth part offers an engaging critique of the political climates of South Africa and Brazil that reinforce the environmental catastrophe of the regions of the world

What to Do with Ruins? Joan Ramon Resina, Laura Menéndez Gorina, 2025-09-01 The essays in this book explore the history of ruins in multiple cultures and periods Authors study ways in which ruins can be appropriated foregrounded and re semanticized for political purposes The links between the materiality of monuments and global processes of ruination are seldom explored as are the historicity of rubble and its museumification Ruins are predicated on the interplay between presence and absence they remind us of caducity while conjuring up the spectrum of the completeness that would negate them They can awaken the eeriness of the disintegrating modern city and serve as a metaphor for institutional decay But they can also underpin proposals of restoration through salvage and reuse of the rubble

Guerrilla Music Leon de Bruin, Jane Southcott, 2024-05-13 Guerrilla Music Musicking as Resistance Defiance and Subversion explores human initiations and responses to music as a process and product intrinsically part of our culture history place time and ecological musical worlds The contributors challenge scholarly approaches wherein music is detached from the social relationships in which it is produced transmitted used and judged Guerrilla is a trope long applied to socio political machinations human conflict and confrontation Guerrilla Music provocatively explores research involving music practices stories communities and musickers worldwide that resist defy and subvert by silence and non compliance reluctant subordination subversive depowering resistive counterpoint or destructive violent dismantling Contexts spanning the subcultural local glocal and universal highlight the potency passions actions and life worlds of music musicians and those that become engulfed in musical maelstroms that incite change Guerrilla Music both invigorates and advances scholarly debates about social power colonisation and difference by exploring the social semiotics of music making and communities identifying powerful new ways of understanding human communication and what musicking means in the twenty first century

Old Jewish Commentaries on the Song of Songs I Joseph Alobaidi, 2010 The commentary of Yefet ben Eli the Karaite second half of the tenth century on The Song of Songs is example of an exegetical work obeying two imperatives The explanation of the divine message of Salvation mixed with the assiduous Karaite effort to prove wrong their adversaries the Rabbanites with the help of the Bible In so doing Yefet ben Eli wrote a thoughtful and original commentary on the very symbolic Song of Songs Indeed according to Yefet ben Eli nothing in the Book should be taken realistically The ability of Yefet to replace symbols by historical events is one of the many marks that show Yefet s mastery and the originality of his commentary Ruined, and how Lumasea (pseud.),1878 Practical Hydropathy John Smedley,1864 David's Harp in Song and Story Joseph Waddell Clokey,1896 *Practical hydropathy ...
