Holcomb,2009-10 Yes the Bible teaches perfection but not your kind of perfection Hey that is good news With his to the point writing style Michael Holcomb exposes what he calls forbidden perfection false fallen nature ideals that all humans impose upon themselves and presents you with Heaven's liberating views on life and reality He notes that there are in fact high and holy standards expected of mankind but shows you how God through Jesus Christ has made them completely within reach The author also brings out significant yet neglected principles of Christian maturity and boldly challenges the Church to

Wild Boff Whalley, 2012-07-05 Boff Whalley just likes running the places it takes him the moments of exhilaration and snapshots of natural beauty that he adds to his mental album This is not a man who signs up to big city marathons and pounds the pavements With his down to earth voice and a great sense of humour Boff writes about how running brings a real world of discovery and adventure from reaching the top of a mountain with the sun at your back and moon in front creating two shadows to running up Mt Fuji on a break from work For Boff running is about freedom experiencing of the world your place in it and generally just enjoying yourself Running is a way to get back to that simplest of relationships the one between our feet and the earth Ideological Battlegrounds - Constructions of Us and Them Before and After 9/11 Volume 1 Joanna Witkowska, Uwe Zagratzki, 2014-10-16 The effects of 9 11 ramify through a network of conduits and pathways including the examples of expressive culture this volume explores and the registration of those effects will likewise be felt in an array of documents and texts The cultural literary and mass mediated effects of 9 11 encompass the globe and the chapters in this volume assume a transnational and international range of vantage points. The topics examined include the representation of Islam and Moslems in a number of texts and genres the political and psychological dilemmas faced by characters in a number of literary works and the refraction of current psycho cultural political tensions in forms of expressive culture in which the effects of 9 11 are felt in other than explicit ways Was 9 11 a moment that punctuated and disrupted the movement of history or as one of the authors suggests did it act as a catalyst to escalate existing stereotypes. The chapters investigate not just different genres and cultural forms but distinct modes of intersection between the political the cultural and the psychological One achievement of this volume is to show how 9 11 s effects at times insinuate themselves in discourse through nuance and subtlety and at other times frontally assault texts and images In the words of one article modern Dutch post 9 11 novels directly participate in current cultural and political discourses By the same token these cultural and political discourses participate in novels films TV shows and the effects of 9 11 proliferate and concentrate in this exchange This volume draws timely attention to the multiple forms of this complex interaction Dr Patrick Hagopian University of Lancaster Criticism of Earth Roland Boer, 2012-06-08 Drawing on mostly ignored texts this book thoroughly reassesses Marx and Engels s engagement with theology Alongside opium Hegel and Feuerbach other dimensions become important historical context Bruno Bauer Max Stirner fetishism secularism political ambivalence and the revolutionary possibilities of theology
