Federico Fellini Tullio Kezich, 2006 Sample Text      Federico Fellini Frank Burke, 1987 Federico Fellini remains the best known of the postwar Italian directors This collection of essays brings Fellini criticism up to date employing a range of recent critical filters including semiotic psychoanalytical feminist and deconstructionist Accordingly a number of important themes arise the reception of fascism the crisis of the subject the question of agency homo eroticism feminism and constructions of gender Since the early 1970s a slide in critical and theoretical attention to Fellini s work has corresponded with an assumption that his films are self indulgent and lacking in political value This volume moves the discussion towards a politics of signification contending that Fellini s evolving self reflexivity is not mere solipsism but rather a critique of both aesthetics and signification The essays presented here are almost all new the two exceptions being important signifiers in Fellini studies The first Frank Burke s Federico Fellini Reality Representation Signification laid the foundation in the late 1980s for considering Fellini s work in the light of postmodernism The second Marguerite Waller s Whose Dolce Vita is this Anyway The Language of Fellini s Cinema 1990 provides a contemporary re reading of Fellini s most successful film This lively and ambitious collection brings a new critical language to bear on Fellini s films offering fresh insights into their underlying issues and meaning In bringing Fellini criticism up to date it will have a significant impact on film studies reclaiming this important director for a contemporary audience      Federico Fellini Frank Burke, Marguerite R.
