The Work of Mathematics Teacher Educators Kathleen Lynch-Davis, Robin L. Rider, 2015-10-01 Originally published in 2004 A major focus of teacher education is the development of preservice teachers However it should not be the only focus of those who work in teacher education Educating inservice teachers is equally important and the conversation among those involved in mathematics teacher education needs to include discussion of this group as well This conversation also highlights a need for professional development for teacher educators and research on the development of teacher educators This monograph discusses issues in educating all of these groups of individuals in an effort to continue the conversation among those involved in mathematics teacher education

Change(d) Agents Betty Achinstein, Rodney T. Ogawa, 2015-04-24 This book examines both the promises and complexities of racially and culturally diversifying today's teaching profession Drawing from a 5 year study of the lives of 21 new teachers of color working in urban hard to staff schools this book documents the tensions these teachers experience between serving as role models and fulfilling district and state mandates

When Critical Multiculturalism Meets Mathematics Patricia L. Marshall, Jessica T. DeCuir-Gunby, Allison W. McCulloch, 2015-12-14 When Critical Multiculturalism Meets Mathematics details the development and outcomes of a teacher professional development project that merged multiculturalism and mathematics In six compact chapters the authors describe the impetus for their multi year project and present rich case studies of nine teacher participants The cases stand alone as compelling reading yet Marshall et al extend beyond their distinctiveness to explain the statistical data related to the project's broader impact Emphasizing both qualitative and quantitative findings makes this book ideal for novice researchers interested in mixed method study Likewise the authors unveil the anatomy and a few complexities of conducting research in the real world contexts of schools including participant recruitment and resolution of unanticipated matters that can arise within research teams A unique twist in the final chapter is Marshall et al's critique of their own missteps as researchers which are used skillfully and unobtrusively to proffer tips for future studies They conclude by theorizing affirmed intersectionality identified as the critical element that facilitated teachers recognition and acceptance of the compatibility between the study's two components
