From this list it can be seen that knowledge of Husserl's work begins in 1923 with the studies of A Banfi Phenomenology however did not immediately receive a warm welcome It contrasted with the then dominant neo idealism as has been made clear by G De Ruggiero but for this very reason it also found adherents among the opponents of idealism These were either distant heirs of positivism who accepted Husserl on account of his scientific approach and rigor or Christian oriented thinkers who following an initial period of diffidence toward the antimetaphysical attitude of phenomenological analysis gradually began to use this method as an antiidealist instrument even though the problem remained of Husserl's own transcendental idealism and the value to be attributed to it Despite the difficulties encountered on the way the numerous studies carried out in Italy prior to World War II make it clear that the better known philosophers who have left a mark on Italian culture already had begun to take a discreet interest in phenomenology
