The Born Again Runner Pete

Magill, 2016-10-09 Pete Magill's The Born Again Runner is a one of a kind guide for everyone who wants to run but feels they can't. As a drug addled young man, Pete Magill once found himself in the ER with his body telling him to give up. Taking up running seemed impossible but he willed himself to do it anyway. Magill went on to become one of the fastest masters runners ever, a multi USA Masters Cross Country Runner of the Year and a sought after coach. Over a glowing albeit hard won career, he has heard every excuse people use to stop running or never start, from achy knees and sore ankles to advanced age and arthritis to too many cigarettes or years on the couch. In every case, Magill's best advice is to do what he did: Run anyway at a pace and mileage that work. Through inspiration, science and anecdote, Magill gets runners out the door through personal action plans, he sets them on the right path and through the best exercises to protect and rehabilitate the body, he keeps them going, showing a way forward for new and sidelined runners who haven't before realized how close they are to fun and pain free running. Whether you're just starting out as a runner or starting afresh, you can do no better than heed the guidance of running's ultimate comeback kid, Pete Magill, as presented in The Born Again Runner. Matt Fitzgerald, award winning co-author of Pain Performance, Myths are busted and excuses are denied. It will be pretty difficult to deny Magill, so just get out there, start and stay with your running regime. Portland Book Review Runner's World, 2006-12. Runner's World magazine aims to help runners achieve their personal health, fitness and performance goals and to inspire them with vivid, memorable storytelling.

Spirit Run Noé Álvarez, 2020-03-03 In this New York Times Book Review Editors' Choice, the son of working class Mexican immigrants flees a life of labor in fruit packing plants to run in a Native American marathon from Canada to Guatemala in this stunning memoir that moves to the rhythm of feet, labor and the many landscapes of the Americas. Catriona Menzies Pike, author of The Long Run, Growing up in Yakima, Washington, Noé Álvarez worked at an apple packing plant alongside his mother, who slouched over a conveyor belt of fruit, shoulder to shoulder with mothers conditioned to believe this was all they could do with their lives. A university scholarship offered escape, but as a first generation Latino college goer, Álvarez struggled to fit in. At nineteen, he learned about a Native American First Nations movement called the Peace and Dignity Journeys; epic marathons meant to renew cultural connections across North America. He dropped out of school and joined a group of Dene, Secwepemc, Gitksan, Dakelh, Apache, Tohono O'odham, Seri, Purepecha and Maya runners, all fleeing difficult beginnings. Telling their stories alongside his own, Álvarez writes about a four month long journey from Canada to Guatemala that pushed him to his limits. He writes not only of overcoming hunger, thirst and fear, dangers included stone throwing motorists and a mountain lion, but also of asserting Indigenous and working class humanity in a capitalist society where oil extraction, deforestation and substance abuse wreck communities. Running through mountains, deserts and cities and through the Mexican territory his parents left behind, Álvarez forges a new relationship with the land and with the act of running, carrying with him the knowledge of his parents' migration and against all odds, in a society that exploits his body and rejects his spirit, the dream of a liberated future. This book is not like any other out there. You will see this country in a fresh way and you might see aspects of your own soul A beautiful run Lui s Alberto Urrea author of The House of Broken Angels When the son of two Mexican immigrants hears about the Peace and Dignity Journeys epic marathons meant to renew cultural connections across North America he s compelled enough to drop out of college and sign up for one Spirit Run is Noe A lvarez s account of the four months he spends trekking from Canada to Guatemala alongside Native Americans representing nine tribes all of whom are seeking brighter futures through running self exploration and renewed relationships with the land they ve traversed Runner s World Best New Running Books of 2020 An anthem to the landscape that holds our identities and traumas and its profound power to heal them Francisco Cantu author of The Line Becomes a River
