Bentley,2003 Jewish Cultural Encounters in the Ancient Mediterranean and Near Eastern World Mladen Popović,Myles Schoonover,Marijn Vandenberghe,2017-01-23 The essays in this volume originate from the Third Qumran Institute Symposium held at the University of Groningen December 2013 Taking the flexible concept of cultural encounter as a starting point the essays in this volume bring together a panoply of approaches to the study of various cultural interactions between the people of ancient Israel Judea and Palestine and people from other parts of the ancient Mediterranean and Near Eastern world In order to study how cultural encounters shaped historical development literary traditions religious practice and political systems the contributors employ a broad spectrum of theoretical positions e g hybridity m tissage frontier studies postcolonialism entangled histories and multilingualism to interpret a diverse set of literary documentary archaeological epigraphic numismatic and iconographic sources Encounters: Medieval Islamic History in 50 Objects Marcus Milwright,2025-10-27 This book consists of fifty case studies and offers an innovative approach to the study of Medieval Islamic history concentrating on the analysis of physical objects from the seventh to the eighteenth centuries and across most of the regions that make up the pre Modern Islamic world These include a wide range of objects from portable items like coins vessels and books to major constructions including mosques tombs castles dams and canal systems The central argument is that the interdisciplinary study of physical objects provides invaluable perspectives that can deepen or challenge the evidence in the written record Object based study can also shed light on the lives of social groups who are seldom discussed in Islamic texts written before the modern period To demonstrate these points each case study focusses on a single object or small group of related objects The case studies combine close analysis of the material and visual characteristics with a discussion of the wider context in which such objects were commissioned made used adapted and exchanged The book is intended as an introduction to the historical study of Islamic objects employing perspectives from the fields of art history archaeology numismatics ethnography and epigraphy Written with a minimum of technical language and supported by a critical introduction an extensive glossary a timeline and guide for further reading the book is aimed at students and general readers who are interested in the political economic social cultural religious and intellectual histories of the Islamic world

Kaiser, 2014 The dilemma of early Christology the author observes is found in the early Christian claims to have seen the Lord and beheld his glory expressions that in early Judaism would have pointed unequivocally to visions of Israel's God He also examines the phenomenon of kyriocentric visions in Second Temple Judaism The Tragic Vision and the Hebrew Tradition W. L. Humphreys, 2003-03-11 In this discerning study of the relationship of the tragic vision to the Hebrew W Lee Humphreys suggests various ways in which Israel confronted the power of the tragic vision at certain points in its tradition Humphreys demonstrates how tragedy the literary genre and the tragic vision maintain a delicate but vital balance between fate and law In conclusion he contends that the tragic vision finds fullest expression at points of radical dislocation in human history At these times the essential questions of existence are reopened rehearsed and relived as the tragic vision questions all previous answers and dogmatic claims to the meaning of life God's Code Maria Johnsen, 2024-05-04 Have you ever felt a nudge a subtle whisper in your heart guiding you towards something greater That's how it started for me the feeling that I was being called to write this book It wasn't some grand revelation just a quiet realization that grew stronger with each passing day God's Code My Journey of Discovery is the result of that calling a journey into the depths of spirituality and the mysteries of existence In these pages I'll share my own experiences and insights hoping they might shed light on your own path This isn't about preaching or claiming to have all the answers It's about sharing a journey a journey of faith doubt and ultimately understanding Whether you're a seeker a skeptic or somewhere in between my hope is that you'll find something here to resonate with So come along on this journey with me Let's explore the mysteries of the universe together guided by a sense of wonder and the belief that there's more to this world than meets the eye I thank God almighty the creator of heaven and earth and all the universe for inspiring me and allowing me to write this book With gratitude and humility Maria Johnsen Orientalism, Liberalism and Colonial Governmentality Sanjeev Kumar HM, 2025-04-30 This book explores the formation of contemporary South Asia as a geopolitical metaphor psycho-cultural concept and historical trope It traces the region's colonial past focusing on the evolution of its semantic and semiotic meanings particularly through the lens of Michel Foucault's methods of genealogy and archaeology The book examines how Orientalism and liberalism key elements of colonial power and epistemology shaped the conception of modern South Asia It argues that these discourses were not isolated but intertwined shaped by Edmund Burke's ideas on imperial rectitude the utilitarian reform agenda focused on improvement and Victorian notions of morality and civility Through this analysis the book shows how the British using the coercive power of colonialism produced knowledge about India blending post Enlightenment values with perceptions of the colonized periphery This mix of metropolitan ideals and colonial narratives shaped the understanding of South Asia in ways that were deeply ideological and epistemic Ultimately the book asserts that the conception of modern South Asia was formed through a complex interplay of colonial knowledge which sought to frame the region within a distorted imperial worldview By mapping this intersection of power knowledge and culture the book provides a critical genealogy of the modern South Asian identity

The Messenger of the Lord in Early Jewish Interpretations of Genesis Camilla Hélena von Heijne, 2010-09-29 The focus of this book is on early Jewish interpretations of the ambiguous relationship between God and the angel of the Lord God in texts like Genesis 16 22 and 31 Genesis 32 is included since it exhibits the same ambiguity and constitutes an inseparable part of the Jacob saga The study is set in the wider context of the development of angelology and concepts of God in various forms of early Judaism When identifying patterns of interpretation in Jewish texts their chronological setting is less important than the nature of the biblical source texts For example a common pattern is the avoidance of anthropomorphism In Genesis the angel of the Lord generally seems to be a kind of impersonal extension of God while later Jewish writings are characterized by a more individualized angelology but the ambivalence between God and his angel remains in many interpretations In Philo's works and Wisdom of Solomon the Logos and Lady Wisdom respectively have assumed the role of the biblical angel of the Lord Although the angelology of Second Temple Judaism had developed in the direction of seeing angels as distinct personalities Judaism still had room for the idea of divine hypostases

The Aggada of the Bavli and Its Cultural World Geoffrey Herman, Jeffrey L. Rubenstein, 2018-08-10 Essays that explore the rich engagement of the Talmud with its cultural world The Babylonian Talmud Bavli the great compilation of Jewish law edited in the late Sasanian era sixth seventh century CE also incorporates a great deal of aggada that is nonlegal material including interpretations of the Bible stories folk sayings and prayers The Talmud's aggadic traditions often echo conversations with the surrounding cultures of the Persians Eastern Christians Manichaeans Mandaeans and the ancient Babylonians and others The essays in this volume analyze Bavli aggada to reveal this rich engagement of the Talmud with its cultural world Features A detailed analysis of the different conceptions of martyrdom in the Talmud as opposed to the Eastern Christian martyr accounts Illustration of the complex ways rabbinic Judaism absorbed Christian and Zoroastrian theological ideas Demonstration of the presence of Persian Zoroastrian royal and mythological motifs in talmudic sources

The Art of Joaquín Torres-García Aarnoud Rommens, 2016-08-05 Intertwining art history aesthetic theory and Latin American studies

Aarnoud Rommens challenges contemporary Eurocentric revisions of the history of abstraction through this study of the Uruguayan artist Joaquín Torres García. After studying and painting for decades in Europe, Torres García returned in 1934 to his native home, Montevideo, with the dream of reawakening and revitalizing what he considered the true indigenous essence of Latin American art. Abstract Spirit: Rommens rigorously analyses the paradoxes of the painter's aesthetic, philosophical doctrine of Constructive Universalism as it sought to adapt European geometric abstraction to the Americas. Whereas previous scholarship has dismissed Torres García's theories as self-contradictory, Rommens seeks to recover their creative potential as well as their role in tracing the transatlantic routes of the avant-garde. Through the highly original method of reading Torres García's artworks as a critique on the artist's own writings, Rommens reveals how Torres García appropriates the colonial language of primitivism to construct the artificial image of pure pre-Columbian abstraction. Torres García thereby inverts the history of art; this book teases out the important lessons of this gesture and the implications for our understanding of abstraction today.
