Science in Theology Neil Messer,2020-06-25 If we wish to understand ourselves and the world in relation to God what contribution to our understanding should we expect from a Christian tradition with its roots in the Bible and what should we expect from the natural sciences Neil Messer sets out five types of answer to that question The responses range from the view that the Christian tradition has nothing to contribute through various forms of dialogue to the claim that science is irrelevant to theological understanding This classification scheme is illustrated and tested by extended explorations of three topics in the science and theology field how to think about God s action in the world how to make theological sense of the suffering and destruction involved in the evolution of life and how theology should respond to the scientific study of religion The classification offers a way to understand and evaluate these debates and the discussion of specific examples demonstrates the strengths and weaknesses of each type of approach The book concludes with suggestions for how readers might use this scheme to guide their own work on science and theology For students and researchers in science and theology this book offers three things a tool for understanding specific debates in science and theology critical surveys of some of the most important debates in the field and a concise guide to ways of setting up encounters of theology with science

Religion and Radical Pluralism Jeff Shawn Jose,2023-05-30 In Religion and Radical Pluralism Engaging Rawls and Gandhi Jeff Shawn Jose confronts the question of the role of religion in the public sphere through the writings of John Rawls and Mahatma Gandhi Jose explores Rawls s and Gandhi s contrasting and complementary views through the framework of three objections integrity fairness and divisiveness against a view of public reason that restricts the expression of religious arguments in the public sphere The book introduces Gandhi s ideas into Rawls s political liberal framework and brings Rawls s ideas into the Gandhian religious framework a critical and creative encounter where the relationship between Gandhian and Rawlsian approaches becomes a fertile ground for reciprocal dialectical reflections Religion and Radical Pluralism teases out and evaluates the tensions and prospects in Rawls s and Gandhi s views on the role of religion in the public sphere thus offering a pertinent contribution to the study of radical pluralism in contemporary societies

Crowd Violence in American Modernist Fiction Benjamin S. West, 2013-03-21 This study explores numerous depictions of crowd violence literal and figurative found in American

Modernist fiction and shows the ways crowd violence is used as a literary trope to examine issues of racial gender national and class identity during this period Modernist writers consistently employ scenes and images of crowd violence to show the ways such violence is used to define and enforce individual identity in American culture James Weldon Johnson William Faulkner Richard Wright Ernest Hemingway F Scott Fitzgerald and John Steinbeck for example depict numerous individuals as victims of crowd violence and other crowd pressures typically because they have transgressed against normative social standards Especially important is the way that racially motivated lynching and the representation of such lynchings in African American literature and culture becomes a noteworthy focus of canonical Modernist fiction composed by white authors

The Sociolinguistics of Voice in Globalising China Jie Dong, 2016-07-01 This book deploys and develops the notion of voice in an investigation of China's rapidly reshuffling society The book is structured around two aspects of the voicing process in contemporary China 1 stratification of voice which addresses the stabilizing condition of voice and 2 restratification of voice that draws attention to the dynamics of the system of which the order is reshuffling and not yet apparent This structure allows us to unveil the hidden forces played out in the voice making process and to stratifying and re-stratifying process of contemporary Chinese society in which some people are making themselves heard whereas others are losing voice Despite its importance and usefulness voice has been under theorized in recent decades The ambitions of this book therefore are to invest serious efforts in developing the notion and to position it in the center of the theoretical toolkits available to students and scholars within and outside sociolinguistics

Lecture Notes On The Mathematical Theory Of Generalized Boltzmann Models Nicola Bellomo, Mauro Lo Schiavo, 2000-01-11 This book is based on the idea that Boltzmann like modelling methods can be developed to design with special attention to applied sciences kinetic type models which are called generalized kinetic models In particular these models appear in evolution equations for the statistical distribution over the physical state of each individual of a large population The evolution is determined both by interactions among individuals and by external actions Considering that generalized kinetic models can play an important role in dealing with several interesting systems in applied sciences the book provides a unified presentation of this topic with direct reference to modelling mathematical statement of problems qualitative and computational analysis and applications Models reported and proposed in the book refer to several fields of natural applied and technological sciences In particular the following classes of models are discussed population dynamics and socio economic behaviours models of aggregation and fragmentation phenomena models of biology and immunology traffic flow models models of mixtures and particles undergoing classic and dissipative interactions

The Whites Are Enemies of Heaven Mark W. Driscoll, 2020-11-09 In The Whites Are Enemies of Heaven Mark W Driscoll examines nineteenth century Western imperialism in Asia and the devastating effects of climate caucasianism the white West's pursuit of rapacious extraction at the expense of natural environments and people of color conflated with them Drawing on an array of primary sources in Chinese Japanese and French Driscoll reframes the Opium

Wars as wars for drugs and demonstrates that these wars to unleash narco and human traffickers kickstarted the most important event of the Anthropocene the military substitution of Qing China's world leading carbon neutral economy for an unsustainable Anglo American capitalism powered by coal Driscoll also reveals how subaltern actors including outlaw societies and dispossessed samurai groups became ecological protectors defending their locales while driving decolonization in Japan and overthrowing a millennia of dynastic rule in China Driscoll contends that the methods of these protectors resonate with contemporary Indigenous led movements for environmental justice

Incarnate Earth Matthew Eaton, 2023-03-10 Incarnate Earth reimagines the doctrine of Incarnation by extending the unity between Creator and creation beyond Jesus to the entire world In dialogue with contemporary theologies of deep incarnation and the philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas the author argues that the face of Christ is encountered in the cruciform demand for justice embodied in the creaturely finitude and vulnerability that grounds ethics Central to this vision is a recognition that the religious role functions at the heart of Jesus life the revelation of God and the redemption of the world are performed throughout the physical world irreducible to humanity or one heroic representative of the species Thus the human encounters the divine Christ in and as the face of any vulnerable thing animal vegetal elemental or otherwise not as a transcendent being mediated through humanity The radical nature of this reimagination necessitates renewed discussions of ecological and animal ethics calling for compassionate care for all vulnerable bodies insofar as this is possible It will be of interest to scholars of Christian theology and the philosophy of religion particularly those focused on ecotheology religious naturalism and environmental ethics

The Autoimmune Diseases M. Eric Gershwin, George C. Tsokos, 2013-12-03 Since publication of the 4th Edition of The Autoimmune Diseases in 2006 the understanding of the immune mechanisms underlying autoimmunity and autoimmune disease has significantly deepened and broadened This fully revised 5th Edition incorporates new material and combines common themes underlying inductive and effector mechanisms and therapies that relate generally to the autoimmune disorders It discusses the biological basis of disease at genetic molecular cellular and epidemiologic levels and includes expanded coverage of autoinflammatory disease and autoimmune responses to tumors Gives a thorough and an important overview on the entire field framing individual disease chapters with information that compares and contrasts each disorder and therapy Provides thorough up to date information on specific diseases along with clinical applications in an easily found reference for clinicians and researchers interested in certain diseases Keeps readers abreast of current trends and emerging areas in the field Ensures that content is not only up to date but applicable and relevant

Cornish Gothic, 1830-1913 Joan Passey, 2023-06-15 This book asks why so many authors drew on Cornwall for inspiration across the long nineteenth century and considers the seismic cultural changes in Cornwall that spurred this interest from the collapse of the mining industry to the developing national rail network from the birth of tourism to the neomedieval rise in interest in King Arthur Understanding frequently overlooked Cornwall in this period is vital to understanding Gothic literature the Victorian imagination intellectual and creative networks and attitudes towards regionality The first part of the book considers landscape and legend defining a mining Gothic tradition exposing the shipwreck as Gothic master trope and demonstrating how antiquarians drew from Cornish legends and lore The second part explores encounters with modernity investigating the impact of railway expansion on access to Cornwall the development of a Cornish King Arthur as a key figure of Victorian masculinity and the specific features of the Cornish ghost story

In Search of the Afropolitan Eva Rask Knudsen, Ulla Rahbek, 2016-07-18 In In Search of the Afropolitan explores human encounters and moments that speak to the challenges of being a 21st century African of the world Against the background of an engaging evaluation of the heated debate on Afropolitanism and what constitutes an Afropolitan the authors turn to literature and its intrinsic capacity for unfolding the human figure of the African as inherently complex and multidimensional Through a detailed probing of the Afropolitan in literary narratives the book enters into conversations about self understanding and the signification of Africa in the contexts of global mobility The book conceives of Afropolitanism as a flexible space of inquiry that curbs the inclination to set the definition of the ism in stone Instead it attempts to distil through close up character analyses a multifarious sense of what it means to be Afropolitan in the contemporary moment In that sense the encounters we come across in the literary narratives produce unexpected ontological negotiations on what it means to be African in the world today As a special feature of In Search of the Afropolitan the authors conversations with prominent writers thinkers and critics provide a lively context for the ongoing debate on Afropolitanism and the Afropolitan

Philosophical Adventures in African Higher Education Yusef Waghid, 2024-10-28 This seminal volume delves into some of the doctoral research and pedagogical experiences within an African higher education context making a case for the transformative potential of education and the integration of African indigenous philosophies into global educational practices Through a collection of vivid narratives the book situates philosophy of higher education by embodying the doctoral researcher and their initiation into academic life revealing how doctoral pursuits in African higher education are not simply academic endeavours but deeply philosophical adventures that challenge critique and reimagine the role of education in society Chapters advocate for a dynamic educational system that rooted in African philosophies nurtures democratic citizenship embraces critical engagement and fosters social justice A call to action for researchers students and policy makers alike to view doctoral research as a powerful catalyst for change the book offers fresh perspectives on addressing the continent's unique challenges contributing to a more just and inclusive world Ultimately considering the potential of academic research to shape the future of societies both within Africa and globally the book will appeal to researchers academics and postgraduate students involved with the philosophy of education higher education and citizenship education as well as these areas in African contexts specifically

Luke Was Not A Christian: Reading the Third Gospel and Acts within Judaism Joshua Paul Smith, 2023-12-18 In this volume Joshua Paul Smith challenges the long held assumption that Luke and Acts were written by a gentile arguing instead that the author of these texts was educated and enculturated within a Second Temple Jewish context Advancing from a consciously interdisciplinary perspective Smith considers the question of Lukan authorship from multiple fronts including reception history and social memory theory literary criticism and the emerging discipline of cognitive sociolinguistics The result is an alternative portrait of Luke the Evangelist one who sees the mission to the gentiles not as a supersession of Jewish law and tradition but rather as a fulfillment and expansion of Israel s own salvation history
