Encounters Jerry H. Bentley,Herbert F. Ziegler,2000-04 World History through Case Studies David Eaton,2025-01-23

This innovative textbook demystifies the subject of world history through a diverse range of case studies Each chapter looks at an event person or place commonly included in comprehensive textbooks from prehistory to the present and from across the globe from the Kennewick Man to gladiators and modern day soccer and globalization and digs deeper examining why historians disagree on the subject and why their debates remain relevant today By taking the approach of unwrapping the textbook David Eaton reveals how historians think making it clear that the past is not nearly as tidy as most textbooks suggest Provocative questions like whether ancient Greece was shaped by contact with Egypt provide an entry point into how history professors may sharply disagree on even basic narratives and how historical interpretations can be influenced by contemporary concerns By illuminating these historiographical debates and linking them to key skills required by historians World History through Case Studies shows how the study of history is relevant to a new generation of students and teachers

Conceiving Histories Isabel Davis, 2025-03-04 A fascinating and beautifully illustrated account of trying to conceive in both the past and the present Inspired by the author's own experiences Conceiving Histories brings together history personal memoir and illustration to investigate the culturally hidden experience of trying to conceive In elegant engaging prose Isabel Davis explores the combination of myth fantasy science and pseudo science that the un reproductive body encounters in pursuit of a viable pregnancy The book chronicles the trying to conceive lifecycle arc from sex education at school through the desire to be a parent into the specifics of trying and struggling to conceive It also looks back at conception throughout history to open a new vista on what we live with today A central argument of Davis's is that historical people lived with the unknown just like we do but were more explicitly able to acknowledge it In an age of assistive reproductive technologies the act of embracing uncertainty seems difficult Although the topic of not conceiving is potentially painful this is not a grim book more than grief it is motivated by curiosity wonder compassion and even humor With 108 full color illustrations Conceiving Histories is also a beautiful material object an intentionally playful antidote and supplement to online search engines the resort of so many embroiled in fertility challenges

Handbook of Legislative Research Gerhard Loewenberg, 1985 The Handbook of Legislative Research a comprehensive summary of the results of research on nineteenth and twentieth century legislatures is itself a landmark in the evolution of legislative studies Gathered here are surveys by leading scholars in the field each providing inventory of an important subfield an extensive bibliography and a systematic assessment of what has been accomplished and what directions future research must take

Sustainable Development Teaching Katrien Van Poeck, Leif Östman, Johan Öhman, 2019-05-08 The aim of this book is to support and inspire teachers to contribute to much needed processes of sustainable development and to develop teaching practices and professional identities that allow them to cope with the specificity of sustainability issues and in particular with the teaching challenges related to the ethical and political dimension of environmental and sustainability education Bringing together recent scholarship on the topic this book translates state of the art academic research into teaching models methods and tools Starting with an outline of the challenge of sustainability it offers insights and models for understanding the interesting yet ambiguous concept of sustainable development and the complex process of transforming society in a more sustainable direction Part I It then goes on to provide a guide to preparing courses and lessons as well as tools for reflection about teaching practices and the multiplicity of approaches to addressing ethical and political challenges in sustainable development teaching Part II Finally the book offers useful conceptual frameworks models and typologies about the concrete design and implementation of sustainable development teaching Part III This book will be essential reading for students of education as well as teachers in compulsory and higher education and sustainability education researchers

Local Babies, Global Science Marcia C. Inhorn, 2012-11-12 In the late 1990s Egypt experienced a boom period in in vitro fertilization IVF technology and now boasts more IVF clinics than neighboring Israel In this book Marcia Inhorn writes of her fieldwork among affluent elite couples who sought in vitro fertilization in Egypt a country which is not only at the forefront of IVF technology in the Middle East but also a center of Islamic education in the region Inhorn examines the gender scientific religious and cultural ramifications of the transfer of IVF technology from Euro American points of origin to Egypt showing how cultural ideas reshape the use of this technology and in turn how the technology is reshaping cultural ideas in Egypt
