over three decades Abolition Geography presents her singular contribution to the politics of abolition as theorist researcher and organizer offering scholars and activists ways of seeing and doing to help navigate our turbulent present Abolition Geography moves us away from explanations of mass incarceration and racist violence focused on uninterrupted histories of prejudice or the dull compulsion of neoliberal economics Instead Gilmore offers a geographical grasp of how contemporary racial capitalism operates through an anti state state that answers crises with the organized abandonment of people and environments deemed surplus to requirement Gilmore escapes one dimensional conceptions of what liberation demands who demands liberation or what indeed is to be abolished Drawing on the lessons of grassroots organizing and internationalist imaginaries Abolition Geography undoes the identification of abolition with mere decarceration and reminds us that freedom is not a mere principle but a place Edited with an introduction by Brenna Bhandar and Alberto Toscano Hidden History of Transportation in Los Angeles Charles P.
