My First Day in EMOJIS!

Directions- In the story, "First Day Jitters", the reader learns that the teacher was nervous for her first day of school. How did you feel on your first day of school? Choose three emojis to capture your feelings on your first day. Now, write to explain how you felt on your first day of school and why.

I felt excited because some of my friends are in this class and I wanted to meet new people. Through out the day I got nervous but then it was ok again. I liked the part of the day when we went to media. Lunch was good and it made me happy. Me and Kalel was talking and laughing and then it was time to leave and I was happy.

The Write Direction Fred S. Wolff, Lynna Garber Kalna, 2010 The Write Direction is an innovative book that guides teachers on how to teach writing including the connection to the writing students will encounter once they leave school The book examines the importance of teacher as writer classroom environment writing process and six traits of writing and how teachers can implement these concepts The Write Direction connects classroom writing instruction to the world students will face once they leave school and enter the workplace The authors believe that students need to explore and practice writing assignments that better prepare them for the writing they will undertake once they leave school Unfortunately many teachers do not know what types of writing employers in the business world expect their employees to be able to produce Therefore every chapter provides specific activities for teachers to undertake as they work to improve their writing instruction Suggestions for incorporating appropriate writing assignments that connect to workplace writing are also included The book also provides suggestions for managing the crucial issues facing new teachers in today s classroom testing grading and long range planning
